Pop up tennis for the homeless & people living with complex mental health conditions in Hammersmith

September 15, 2020

As the Barons Court Project drop in centre is currently closed due to COVID19 pop up tennis supported by the Queen's Club Foundation provides an outdoor focal point where people can come together, enjoy some physical activity, social interaction and be provided with a meal.

Director of the Barons Court Project Michael Angus said 'Our guests are currently very isolated and have suffered during lockdown as they have been unable to socialise with others. Many are living in small hotel rooms and are lacking exercise. For those whose routine was to come to Barons Court Project a chance to meet other
