Hello Jack,

Tomorrow is the LAST DAY!

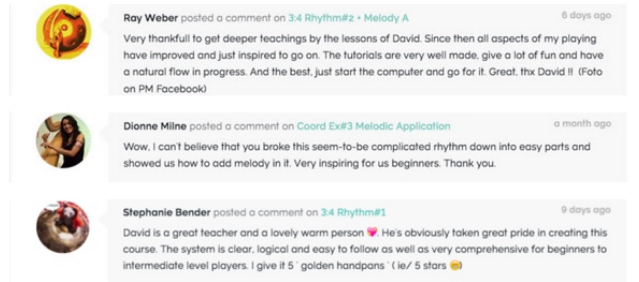

After that, the special discount on my handpan online course will end and all the bonus content will disappear. No exceptions.

You have just one last day to save 30$ OFF the course price.

So please don't wait. I know by experience that I'll always have people who sign up too late and then email me to try to get me to make an exception. There will be no exceptions, that's why I'm insisting. :-)

Speaking of which, I am getting a lot of excellent feedback from people already enrolled in the course.

The screenshot shows three comments from users on a social media platform. Each comment includes a profile picture, the user's name, the course name they commented on, and the date of the comment. The comments are all positive, praising the instructor's teaching style and the course content.

- Ray Weber posted a comment on 3:4 Rhythm#2 - Melody A 6 days ago. Comment: "Very thankful to get deeper teachings by the lessons of David. Since then all aspects of my playing have improved and just inspired to go on. The tutorials are very well made, give a lot of fun and have a natural flow in progress. And the best, just start the computer and go for it. Great. Thx David !! (Foto on PM Facebook)"
- Dionne Milne posted a comment on Coord Ex#3 Melodic Application a month ago. Comment: "Wow, I can't believe that you broke this seem-to-be complicated rhythm down into easy parts and showed us how to add melody in it. Very inspiring for us beginners. Thank you."
- Stephanie Bender posted a comment on 3:4 Rhythm#1 9 days ago. Comment: "David is a great teacher and a lovely warm person 🍷. He's obviously taken great pride in creating this course. The system is clear, logical and easy to follow as well as very comprehensive for beginners to intermediate level players. I give it 5 'golden handpans' (5/5 stars) 🌟"

The Double Strength of This Handpan Course

The advantage of this course is that you'll learn really fast and at your own pace.

1. I have created a unique musical notation system to teach you. It's been developed throughout the years and the many workshops I have been given. Tested and approved by a lot of different students from many different countries, this method helps to learn really quickly.
2. I film my courses from above so that you see me playing as you see yourself. My right hand is on your right hand, etc. It is WAY better than being filmed from the front. But don't take my word for it...

==> Check it out for yourself by watching today's free video to see how quickly you can learn this rhythm using my notation system and overhead filming.

Here is What You'll Learn if You Join My Course:

Last time I counted, my handpan course has 69 video lessons! These lessons contain:

- Warm-up exercises: Gives you precision and balance between your 2 hands. Helps you to know by heart your scale and your instrument "map / layout".
- Hands coordination / Independence exercises: Helps you to develop your 2 hands dexterity and independence. So useful for the rhythms learning!
- 4/4 Rhythms: Learn some rhythms and learn how to do variations. This section helps you to understand the structures of rhythms, gives you ideas for your own handpan compositions!
- 3/4 Rhythms: Learn what it means. Structures variations, how to apply them with a melody.
- The Chords: How to find them, how to create a sequence and how to apply it with a rhythm. We are going to organise our playing in order to compose.
- Ear training: Develop your ears to replicate any rhythms. Discover a great method for that. Ears are your best help in music, train them!
- Grooves, melodies, build-up patterns: Learn some big grooves and their variations applying them to melodies.

If you sign-up today you'll get access to all the bonus content and get the best price on my course. And as I offer a 30-day satisfaction guarantee, you take zero risks!
