TERMS & CONDITIONS

CAPACITY:

The client must execute this agreement on venue's event management website and submit a non-refundable deposit equal to 50% of the total cost of services and equipment in order to reserve the event date. The outstanding balance (or remaining 50%) is due on the event date. The total cost of the event (including applicable taxes, fees and charges) is contained in the event summary. Client may pay for any deposit or other event cost through a recognized major credit and/or debit card. If so, client shall complete a credit card authorization form, which may be found in client's event management website. If client fails to pay the amount owed then venue may charge the credit card on file.

DAMAGE DEPOSIT

Client agrees that it is responsible for any damage, reasonable wear and tear excepted, to the facility caused by its event. Venue, within seven (7) days of conclusion of the event, shall provide client a listing of damages (and an itemized list of costs of repair) to the facility caused by client's event. Client, within seven (7) days of receipt of such listing, shall pay venue the costs reflected on the listing of damages. Client shall have an opportunity to inspect the facility and note any damages prior to the event.

GUARANTEES

Final guaranteed attendance and menu for food and beverage selections should be received no later than seven (7) business days prior to event date and will not be subject to reduction beyond that point. If the guaranteed attendance is not received, the original estimated attendance will be used as the guaranteed attendance. The guaranteed attendance cannot be lowered more than 15% of the signed pricing schedule. In the event of a substantial increase in the number of attendees, additional charges may apply.

CANCELLATION

The initial 50% deposit is nonrefundable. If client cancels less than seven (7) business days before the event date then venue retains the full contractual amount.

FORCE MAJEURE

No Party shall be liable in damages and either Party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement for any delay or default in performing hereunder if such delay or default is caused by conditions beyond its control including, but not limited to, acts of God (such as hurricanes, earthquakes, flooding), fire, wars, riots, government regulation, terrorist acts, declared epidemic or pandemic, union strike or picketing, interruption of transportation services that prevent at least 25% or more of Client's attendees from attending, and/ or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the Party whose performance is affected. Should Clients' Event be cancelled, postponed or otherwise adversely impacted as a result of a force majeure event, Client will be entitled to a full refund of all deposits made prior to date of termination or a good faith effort on the Parties' in rescheduling at a mutually agreeable date or otherwise accommodating to allow the Event to occur (e.g., substitution of similar facility). A Party seeking relief under this Paragraph shall provide written notice (specifying the basis for its sought relief) to the other Party as soon as possible but no later than five (5) days of such occurrence.

Price does not include tax or automatic 18% gratuity*
