Africa Ministries Office

The Africa Ministries Office (AMO) was established in 2004 to help guide all of Friends United Meeting's work in Africa. The office is located in Kisumu, a large city on the shores of Lake Victoria, in the western part of Kenya.

Friends first arrived in East Africa in 1902 and established a mission in Kaimosi, in Kenya's fertile western highlands. Early mission activities focused on industrial/vocational training, education, health care, and evangelism. Quakerism grew rapidly throughout the region, and about 50% of the world's Quakers are now found in East Africa.

Please fill out BOTH sides of this form.

Today, the work of the Africa Ministries Office revolves around these activities, among others:

- promoting and strengthening Quakerism in Africa
- uniting African Friends in working together as a movement
- building fellowship, shared identity, and mutual accountability among African Friends through effective communication
- mobilizing African Friends to “go into all the world” in mission

AMO provides essential connections between Monthly Meetings within Kenya. It facilitates multi-day retreats for general superintendents. In addition, AMO hosts the triennial African Friends Pastors Conference, which welcomes up to 800 pastors to share ideas, experience, and conflict management skills.

Education is a large part of AMO’s ministry. Quaker schools are regarded as some of the best in Kenya, and AMO’s leadership helps Meetings support the schools under their care. In collaboration with North American Friends in the field of education, AMO facilitates the development of conflict-resolution curricula used in Kenyan schools.

Led by John Muhanji, AMO coordinates all of FUM’s programmatic work in Africa, and AMO staff travel extensively throughout Central and East Africa to represent FUM in twenty-four Yearly Meetings. AMO serves as a denominational headquarters for many African Quakers. It is consistently regarded as among the most credible, well-respected organizations in Kenya and beyond. It is also known for its impeccable financial integrity.

You are invited to join FUM in this important work in Africa! The AMO budget, for all salaries and operating expenses, is just about $10,000 per month. Each Yearly Meeting in East Africa has committed to contribute toward this amount, and the remainder is supported by FUM donors in North America.
