

Jana Kalbermatter

“I am all for the holistic design approach: great ideas matter and concise storytelling enables a strong visual output.”

Jana is a trained industrial designer and the creative heart of woowai. She loves to create extraordinary product and graphic designs and manages projects following a holistic and multidisciplinary approach. Triggering unexpected results with a smile, Jana is an enthusiastic, people-oriented, and high-energy team player.

Qualifications

As manager of design projects, Jana has a proven track record working with small and big teams, commercial agencies, as well as cultural institutions in Switzerland, and abroad.

She is an idea-driven fast prototyper – an entrepreneur by nature, with a coordinative soul that leads teams to sustainable success.
