

Dear All

What a wonderful way to finish the 2019 Festival! Last night's concert was sublime. Many people said they could have sat and listened to the concert all over again. It was a fantastic tribute to Sir Karl Jenkins and it was amazing to have him conduct his own music, and also to have Carol Barratt (Lady Jenkins) read the poem, Lament, she had written for Sir Karl's Stabat Mater.

I had thought I had finished writing my daily e-mails for this year, but I need to write one last e-mail to give you the results of the GOWER FESTIVAL 2019 QUIZ. We had a number of entries and it was obviously a brain-teaser as not everyone got the right answers!

The correct answers were:

- A - Tom Carroll
- B - Cathy Ace
- C - Gordon Back
- D - Sir Karl Jenkins

Well done to all those who got the right answers and congratulations, and a bottle of bubbly, to the first name drawn out of a hat this morning

(DRUM ROLL)

Victoria Vernon-Hunt!

We will make arrangements to get your prize to you this week.

Best wishes,
Anne
