Friends of the Gower Festival

Gower was the first Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty to be recognised officially in the United Kingdom.

For over 40 years, the Gower Festival has brought leading UK and international artists and ensembles to perform in Gower during the month of July. Many of the concerts are held in the small Gower churches, which provide excellent acoustics for chamber music and a wonderful atmosphere.

The Festival is a major financial undertaking and, as a Friend of the Festival, you will be helping us to continue making it possible to bring world-class music to this beautiful part of Wales. You will also be helping to encourage local young musicians in the school workshops run by visiting artists.

Application form

I/we would like to join the Friends of the Gower Festival. I/we understand that I/we will receive information about Gower Festival Society activities and advanced booking for the Festival itself.

I/we enclose a completed standing order/cheque (please delete whichever does not apply), payable to Gower Festival Society, for one year's donation:

£15 per household.

Please tick whichever is appropriate.

If you are a UK taxpayer, it will greatly help the Gower Festival if you are able to complete the Gift Aid Declaration.

Benefits of becoming a Friend

- Advance booking for concerts. This benefit is much appreciated by Friends as many concerts, particularly at smaller venues, sell out quickly.
- Regular Festival email updates.
- Acknowledgement in the Festival programme.
- Invitation to any masterclasses held during the Festival.
- Opportunities to help with the running of Festival events and to participate at the Society's Annual General Meeting.
