Dear Friend(s)

Live music has been in short supply recently, so I am very pleased to be able to invite you to the final of the John Fussell Memorial Trust Award for Young Musicians, which this year will be held on Tuesday 19th October at the Taliesin Arts Centre, commencing at 7.30pm. Unfortunately, the Taliesin Café Bar will not be open, and I do apologise for the short notice, but only very recently did we become aware that we would be able to make the arrangements.

As in the past, there will be short recitals by the four competition Finalists:-

Peter Whitehead Royal Birmingham Conservatoire Viola

Florence Plane Royal Academy of Music Bassoon

Lisa Dafydd Royal Academy of Music Soprano

Nick Smith Guildhall School of Music Tuba

I do hope that you will be able to attend and support these young musicians, and I am sure that we can look forward to an enjoyable evening, which should conclude by about 9.10pm.

Although this is a 'free' concert, Covid restrictions mean that tickets MUST be obtained beforehand, through the Taliesin Box Office, preferably on-line, @

<https://taliesinartscentre.ticketsolve.com/shows/873628144/events>

or by telephone 01792 602060 - lines are open Monday to Friday, 1.00pm to 5.00pm.

Tickets already booked can be collected from the Box Office from 5.30pm on the day of the concert only – the Box Office will be closed to 'in person' visits at all other times.

These arrangements are in place to ensure appropriate social distancing, and the Taliesin Box Office system will also capture all the details required for 'track and trace'. May I also remind you, please, that Face Coverings remain mandatory within the Taliesin building.

Best wishes
