Head of Languages

We are looking for a suitably qualified specialist to lead this important department. They will have the genuine interest of our children at heart. A language degree in Spanish and French will be advantageous. Experience at Key Stage Three will be important as the children study for Common Entrance and Scholarship Exams.

We offer wonderful children, a stunning rural setting, excellent facilities and a talented team of supportive colleagues. Candidates will be inspirational classroom practitioners who have energy, enthusiasm, and co-curricular interests to share, not least sport. This is an excellent opportunity for a suitably qualified, specialist teacher to work in a happy community and a stimulating school.
