Art - in its forms - is ultimately human expression. It is critical for communication, healing, sharing, documenting, teaching, and most importantly, building community. Through the arts, and with your help, we will build a cohesive community that shares and understands each other, themselves and the importance of protecting our shared environment. Please join us. Details about level benefits are on the back of this form. There are several options for joining:

1. Fill out and mail form and check made payable to SSCA, or
2. Go to www.ssartcenter.org for online form and payment options, or
3. Contact us at the info above to schedule a meeting
4. Artists! Please see back of form for artist specific information
