

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR JOB DESCRIPTION

PINK THE BASIN, INC.

The Executive Director of Pink the Basin, Inc. (“PTB”) oversees and executes the daily operations of the organization consistent with the mission, purpose, and strategic plan provided by the Pink the Basin, Inc. Board of Directors.

ORGANIZATIONAL RELATIONSHIP

The Executive Director is responsible to the Board of Directors and works under the direction of the Board President.

PRINCIPLE RESPONSIBILITY

The Executive Director is responsible for the overall administration of Pink the Basin, Inc. including oversight of the budget, fund raising, program development, oversight of volunteers, community/public relations and marketing, Board relations, and other duties as assigned.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

The Executive Director will be responsible for the following:

Mission & Program:

- Understand Pink the Basin, Inc. and its purpose, mission, policies, culture, values, history, key stakeholders, programs, finances, and strategic plan;
- Execute the daily operations of Pink the Basin, Inc. in a timely and professional manner;
- Maintain a comprehensive calendar of events including such items as grant submission dates, fundraiser dates, board meeting dates, etc.;
- Assist committees as needed;
- Ensure the maintenance of thorough affiliate and donor databases;
- Ensure that appropriate awareness, education, and assistance programs in the area of women’s health are provided;
- Stay abreast of philanthropic, economic, social, and community trends that might impact Pink the Basin’s current mission, purpose, or programs;

Board Development:

- Ensure that Board of Director committees have the information and support necessary to fulfill objectives;
- Meet with the Board President monthly to coordinate agendas, minutes, financials, etc. for Board meetings and track the strategic plan

Financial Management:

- Assure adequate control and accounting of all funds, including developing and maintaining sound financial practices;
- Safeguard financial integrity by working with the board in preparing annual & event specific budgets and see that the organization operates within budget guidelines;
- Oversee official records and documents and ensure compliance with regulations and reporting requirements;
- Assure that funds are disbursed in accordance with funding requirements and donor designations and grantors' reporting requirements

Fundraising:

- Oversee/coordinate the Primary Fundraising Event (Luncheon) as outlined in PTB, Inc. policies by addressing such areas as logistics, timelines, volunteers, speakers, etc.;
- Solicit and secure donations/sponsorships for Primary Fundraising Event;
- Assist appropriately with Cohort Fundraising Events as outlined in PTB policies;
- Review requests for Third Party Fundraising Events that are outside Primary or Cohort guidelines;
- Oversee and expand fundraising activities including individual giving, foundation grant writing/support and foundation relationships, corporate participation and special fundraising events;
- Oversee planning and implementation of any additional special events

Public Awareness, Education & Marketing:

- Increase visibility of programs and services and maintain good public relations in collaboration with marketing and development personnel and board members;
- Establish and maintain effective relationships and/or networks with professional and social service organizations, funders/donors, providers, governmental entities, medical personnel, corporations and other voluntary agencies;
- Assist with current marketing plan to increase visibility, publicity and education of the community through website, and social media such as Facebook, Instagram, and other available media outlets

PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS

The Executive Director must:

- Be a self-starter who works independently and with others;
- Be committed to and enthusiastic about the purpose and mission;
- Be adept at planning, prioritizing, organizing and following through;
- Possess good communication skills;
- Be honest, show integrity and trust, as well as the ability to motivate others in a similar manner;
- Be one who shares information readily, listens as well as gives advice and respects the abilities of others;
- Be able to travel throughout the Permian Basin promoting awareness and education of appropriate women's health issues;
- Shows a high degree of maturity, sophistication, self-confidence, flexibility and caring;
- Be cognizant that you represent Pink the Basin at all times

CRITICAL COMPETENCIES FOR SUCCESS

- Teamwork - Will cooperate, collaborate, and corroborate with all others as one unit or team in pursuit of a common goal/cause;
- Organization and Mission Focus -Will look across the organization for opportunities to apply ideas that expand influence and impact;
- Program Acumen - Will develop a depth of understanding of program histories, current program successes and potential for future innovations;
- Financial Management - Will oversee the fiscal soundness of the organization;
- Talent and Relationship Development - Will possess the capacity to identify, observe and contribute to management and board development; ability to model appropriate words and actions;
- Technology – Will utilize software such as Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Google Docs, Word Press, etc. to effectively promote PTB mission and communicate with others;
- Relationships - Will build relationships across functions and cultures by exhibiting credibility among multiple constituencies;
- Thought Leadership - Will demonstrate innovation, intention, and quality of contribution to program, advocacy, training and research activities.
- Communications - Will possess ability to articulate, persuade, engage, and listen effectively. Ability to use different methods of communication appropriately. Skilled at delivering strong and compelling presentations

ANNUAL PERFORMANCE/EVALUATION

- The Executive Director will participate in an annual performance review and evaluation facilitated by the Board of Directors.

SALARY

- Dependent on experience
- Job Type: Part-time

CONTACT INFORMATION

Pink the Basin, Inc.
P.O. Box 7406
Odessa, TX 79760
432 940-PINK (7465)
info@pinkthebasin.com