

Paige A. Winikoff

SPECIAL COUNSEL

Paige Winikoff represents employers through all stages of litigation in federal and state court. Her work includes extensive experience defending wage and hour claims (including class and PAGA actions) as well as claims for discrimination, harassment, failure to accommodate and related employment matters. Ms. Winikoff also represents employers in state and federal administrative proceedings, guiding them through the investigative processes of the DFEH and the EEOC.

Previously in-house counsel at a Silicon Valley technology company, Ms. Winikoff also offers strategic, real-world advice and counsel in matters of compliance, policy development, performance management, executive compensation, and management training and coaching.
