EVIDENCE OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE ABILITY

Primary Applicant

You will be required to evidence your English language ability by way of an English language test, unless you meet one of the following criteria:-

- Hold a passport from the UK, Canada, United States, New Zealand, Republic of Ireland; or
- Have completed at least 5 years of consecutive full-time study in a secondary or higher education institution where instruction was in English (i.e. a letter from your school can assist with this requirement)

If you don't meet the exemptions above you will be required to complete an English language test by completing one of the following and achieving the required results:-

- IELTS – score of at least 6 in each of the four test components - single sitting
- TOEFL iBT – achieved the following minimum test scores in each of the four test components: 12 for listening, 13 for reading, 21 for writing and 18 for speaking - single sitting
- PTE Academic – a test score of at least 50 in each of the four test components (speaking, reading, listening and writing) – single sitting
- CAE - a test score of at least 169 in each of the four test components (speaking, reading, listening and writing) – single sitting
- OET – a score of at least 'B' in each of the four test components.

Tests must have been undertaken within the three years before the day on which the application is made.

Dependents who are over 18 – Functional English language ability

All adult dependents who are over 18 years of age will need to demonstrate 'functional' English language ability. This can be demonstrated in a number of ways:

- Complete all years of primary education and at least 3 years of secondary education at educational institutions in which all instruction was conducted in English; or
- Complete at least 5 years of secondary education at institutions in which all instruction was conducted in English; or
- Achieve English examination results outlined below; or
- Complete in Australia at least 1 year of full-time study or equivalent part-time study towards a degree, higher degree, diploma, or associate diploma at an institution or institutions where all the instruction was conducted in English; or
- Hold an award (being a degree, a higher degree, a diploma or a trade certificate) that required at least 2 years of full-time study or training; and all instruction (including instruction received in other courses for which the person was allowed credit) for that award was conducted in English.
- A positive assessment by an Adult Migrant English Program service provider in Australia that you have functional English.

Required scores to establish Functional English are as follows:

- IELTS - an average band score of at least 4.5 based on the four test components of speaking, reading, listening and writing.
- TOEFL iBT - a total band score of at least 32 based on the four test components of speaking, reading, writing and listening.
- PTE Academic - an overall band score of at least 30 based on the four test components of speaking, reading, writing and listening
- CAE - an overall band score of at least 147 based on the four test components of speaking, reading, writing and listening and the test must have been taken on or after 1 January 2015.

Tests must have been undertaken within 12 months of visa application lodgement or can be completed during visa application processing.

WE CAN HELP YOU OBTAIN YOUR DOCUMENTS

Please let us know if you require assistance in obtaining any of these documents, including:

- English translations of any documents that are not in English: We can obtain quotes from translators accepted by the Department of Home Affairs (DOHA).
- Australian Federal Police (AFP) National Police Certificate: We will send you the relevant details in order to apply for an AFP clearance in due course.
- Police clearance certificates for overseas countries: The Department of Home Affairs only accepts very specific police clearances from overseas countries. We will advise you which document to apply for, and provide you with instructions on how to obtain the relevant clearances in due course.
- Health examinations: We can complete the relevant health declarations on your behalf, generate the required referral forms, and provide information about where to have your examinations.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What if I cannot provide all of these documents?

We can lodge your application even if some of your documents are not currently available. However, this may delay the DOHA processing of your application. Where possible, please provide all of the documents listed above that are relevant to your situation.

Can I email you scanned copies of my documents?

Where possible, please email scanned copies of all of your documents to the agent dealing with your application.

When emailing scanned copies of your documents, please ensure that:

- they are saved in PDF format, rather than JPEG or any other format (if possible);
- colour is preferable if possible
- there is a MAXIMUM of one document per scanned page (e.g. do not scan two different passports onto one page).

I already have a National Police Certificate from the AFP. Can I use this for my subclass 186 visa application?

Yes, if you used the correct code when applying for the National Police Certificate (Code 33) and it is dated within the last 12 months. However, if it is over 12 months old by the time the Department of Home Affairs makes a decision regarding your application, you may be asked to provide a new National Police Certificate.

I recently had a medical examination for my temporary visa application. Can I use this for my subclass 186 application?

No. You will need to have a new medical examination for your subclass 186 application, as the medical requirements are different for a permanent visa.
