

Daisy Day will be starting her 10th year at Holly Drive Leadership Academy. She was born in the Los Angeles area and raised in Chula Vista. Her parents came as immigrants from Central America to give their children a better life. Her mother, not knowing the English language was able to graduate from San Diego State and become a teacher. Growing up Daisy was able to see their hard work and perseverance pay off. This gave Daisy the motivation and drive to want to become a teacher, just like her mother. Daisy has great admiration and respect for her parents.

After graduating from Bonita Vista High School in 2001 she went on to live in Japan for 3 years. There she was able to immerse herself in a new culture and experience life outside California. This brought upon her a passion for traveling and new cultures. Soon afterwards, Daisy went on to graduate with her BA in Interdisciplinary Studies and teaching credential from National University. She is currently in her final year for her Masters in Education with an emphasis in Leadership at the University of San Diego.

Daisy Day is also bilingual, speaking both English and Spanish fluently. In her spare time, she likes to spend time with her family. Daisy has 2 amazing daughters who also like to travel, shop, and sightsee their beautiful city of San Diego.
