Though weddings have quite a regular, universal format, it can however be as creative and adventurous as you can imagine, especially for young couples who want something unique and exciting.

Mountains tops in New Zealand, beaches in Thailand, temples in Cambodia, or even under water in Australia are popular places for wedding ceremonies these days. But it is a trustworthy wedding company that is the most important element.

Destination weddings

Bliss Creations, a luxury destination wedding planning company, has worked with couples worldwide planning weddings around the Asia Pacific since 2005.

They are dedicated to creating for you the best quality destination weddings – weddings that require travel to exotic locations, with a more relaxed atmosphere and, sometimes, cultural element.

Destination weddings are usually smaller, with about 50 to 100 people, making them more intimate. "The guests can get to meet new people and some others who are important to the bride and groom," said Sonya Yeung, Creative Director of Bliss Creations.

"It is also a special experience for the parents, to get to know more about their children and their friends.

Tailor-made, premium quality services

Sonya deeply believes that the bride and groom should have to do nothing, just look beautiful and enjoy their big day with friends and families. "We try to make the whole process as stress-free as possible, from start to finish," she said.

With this in mind, Bliss Creations offers a full service package, which provides you with creative solutions to include as much as what you want.

Three levels of customized involvement are provided to ensure a true reflection of your individuality: Bespoke Planning, A la Carte Services and On the Day Coordination.

Bliss Creations knows clearly that everybody wants to have something unique, so they have their expert team provide free, initial consultation for personalized attention, discussing with you your hopes and dreams for the wedding in detail. This "Blissfully Yours" bespoke planning service is essential for a flawless day.

Named "Blissfully Contented, the A la Carte Service is for those who have done the bulk of the planning on their own but who may need some advice or assistance along the way, ensuring that you have accounted for all the details.

The most challenging, stressful part is when it comes to your wedding day as you might have to coordinate vendors and ensure all tasks get done in time for you to walk down the aisle. Bliss Creation's On the Day Coordination, Blissfully Simple, is to help manage all these details.

Apart from the above, there are still more tasks, such as pre-wedding photography, rehearsal dinners and honeymoon planning.

"We have to be very good communicators because we are acting on behalf of the couples as well as the vendors for consistent and high quality service," said Sonya.

Thus, Bliss Creations deals directly with the carefully chosen service providers at each of their destinations, building a strong working relationship to deliver upon any request.

A perfect wedding

Nothing can be better than having somebody you can rely on to manage the most important, and memorable day of your life.

"I think a perfect wedding is when everything runs smoothly from the start of planning until the last guest leaves," said Sonya. "It is the fluidity of choices and the compromises made between couples during the whole process and a stress free day that makes a perfect wedding."

Bliss Creations is always there to make your dream come true, with peace of mind.

Tips for perfect weddings

Having a dream wedding is not so hard. Sonya Yeung, Creative Director of Bliss Creations, gives her advice for a hassle-free day.

- 1 Collect images of inspirational ideas that you like and are drawn to. Soon you will begin to see a pattern. Knowing what you like will help bring you closer to the style of wedding you would like to have.
- 2 When booking a destination wedding consider the weather and the best time of year to visit. Shoulder seasons will be less costly than Peak seasons.
- 3 Decide early on the items that are most important to you i.e., photography, food & beverage, music etc. This will help to maintain your focus when making decisions and deciding where to spend your money.
- 4 If you cannot afford a wedding planner consider at least hiring someone On the Day. It will prove invaluable and ensure that you can concentrate on looking gorgeous and having a great time.
- 5 Trim your guestlist in order that costs don't skyrocket.
- 6 Once the guests start arriving, you will be so excited and you may not get a chance to eat much so have a big breakfast and some small snacks throughout the day to keep your energy up.
- 7 Be considerate of overseas guests. A welcome note, with the itinerary for the coming days and a big thank you will make your guests feel great that they have made the effort to attend.
