

ALONZO'S NEWS

OCTOBER 24, 2017

Alonzo hosts another of his famous PATH parties: a community-building gathering of family, friends and supporters. These events are held once or twice a year, and are open to any who wish to be involved with Alonzo's goals for a good life, and success with his art endeavors.

A great moment was when three on-duty members of the nearby Boulder Fire Department brought their truck and attended the event. One of the men, Jay Ruggeri, has had a long connection with Alonzo, and he presented exciting news about Alonzo's art in Lafayette.
