

Tuesday 1

Wednesday 2

Thursday 3

10 AM	Opening / Welcome
11 AM	You've Made a Commitment to Anti-racist Practice - What Next? ★ stage How are you or your organisation making a commitment to centring racial equality and developing anti-racist practices in your work?	The Age Gap: Co-ops &amp; Young People 18-24 yr olds are the most likely to lose work during the pandemic & economic crisis. How can co-operatives respond to youth unemployment?
12 PM	The Future of the High Street Explore the rewards of reusing historic buildings on high streets and learn about AHF's 3-year support programme for community-led projects.	The Insurgent Power of the Commons Helfrich on her book Free, Fair & Alive: the Insurgent Power of the Commons, and how to co-create a world free from the market-state system.
1 PM	Support &amp; Solidarity Clinic Our experiences are linked to wider social & economic structures. A confidential non-judgemental space to reflect, talk openly and be heard. Book in the Expo.
2 PM	Leadership in the New Economy Leadership is a practice, not a status. Let's explore how we can embed new economy principles in our approach to leadership.	Bad Kindness: This isn't Mutual Aid Camerados on its UK movement, the cock ups made trying to make it truly mutual, and how COVID-19 responses often saw "mutual aid" misused.
3 PM	Employee Ownership Panel ★ stage A panel discussion with Employee Ownership Association, Triodos, and Jeremy Gadd Associates.	Exploring Authentic Community Engagement Explore practical ways to redistribute power locally, and to examine our own and key decision-makers' positions and privileges.
4 PM	Transatlantic Cooperativism ★ stage Join a panel and open discussion about the future of co-operation in the UK and US.	Small is Beautiful. But is it enough? If we want to share wealth more equally, don't we need to raise our sights, building new economic relations across localities & territories?
5 PM	Economic Science Fictions A reading from Economic Science Fictions, an innovative anthology exploring how science fiction can motivate new approaches to economics.	The Left &amp; The Limits of Social Media Can a medium constructed by corporations to harvest attention and sell advertising ever prove a truly effective route to positive change?
6 PM	Support &amp; Solidarity Clinic Our experiences are linked to wider social & economic structures. A confidential non-judgemental space to reflect, talk openly and be heard. Book in the Expo.
7 PM	Ownership in Crisis ★ stage Panel discusses how the 'ownership gap' will shape the economic recovery from COVID-19 and further opportunities for democratic ownership.
8 PM

10 AM	Morning Magazine Review A round-up of articles about the new economy in the press and an opportunity to discuss how the movement is being communicated in the media.
11 AM	Mutual Aid to Co-operatives ★ stage As the crisis gives way to "the new normal", many are looking beyond mutual aid for models of continuing sustainable community support.	How Do We Build a Volunteer-led National Solar Movement Volunteering in the time of the climate crisis is no longer a hobby — it is a crucial part of the solution.
12 PM	Repurposing your Organisation	Cut the Crap Conversations An honest 'warts & all' conversation that cuts the rhetoric so we can navigate the practical challenges of making community leadership work.
1 PM	Support &amp; Solidarity Clinic Our experiences are linked to wider social & economic structures. A confidential non-judgemental space to reflect, talk openly and be heard. Book in the Expo.
2 PM	It Starts With Art: a Creative Lens on Community-led Housing A creative workshop to try problem-solving, taking a fresh and innovative look at how we can create homes and strengthen communities.	Self-renovating Neighbourhoods Neighbourhoods are presented with the false choice of gentrification or decline. Can they take land, buildings & power into their own hands?
3 PM	What Can Councils Do After Declaring a Climate Emergency? ★ stage Will declarations lead to transformational action instead of inertia? Hear from inside councils and from those aiming to hold them to account.	Mutual Credit Clubs Moneyless trading means small businesses can survive when there's no money around. Explore mutual credit and how it can support communities.
4 PM	Commons and Shares: The Problem with Worker Ownership An open discussion around different ownership philosophies in worker co-ops, and how they play out in the real world.
5 PM	Is Commoning our Best Climate Hope? Explore how the climate community can better become builders of the new economy while creating political mandate for stronger national action.	Trust the People What can we learn from COVID-19 and what do we need to retain? Explore how we can take back the power and look local at every opportunity.
6 PM
7 PM	Community Wealth Building beyond Corbynomics ★ stage Panel discuss the challenges & opportunities from community wealth building in this moment and what can be done to truly change our system.
8 PM

10 AM	Morning Magazine Review A round-up of articles about the new economy in the press and an opportunity to discuss how the movement is being communicated in the media.
11 AM	Family Farm Succession and Community Ownership ★ stage Panel discuss challenges facing family farms, democratic land ownership, and creative succession approaches that contribute to land reform.	Want to Build Support for your Project or Cause? Semble, the community action champions, give a practical guide to harnessing the power of storytelling to inspire audiences and make change.
12 PM	Elinor Ostrom &amp; the Community Paradigm Discuss the findings of NLGN's Ostrom Project, self-governance in the UK, and explore approaches and policies to help communities flourish.	The Cleveland Model &amp; Employee Ownership Explore a two-pronged approach to increasing employee ownership by outlining economic development strategies rooted in anchor partnerships.
1 PM	Support &amp; Solidarity Clinic Our experiences are linked to wider social & economic structures. A confidential non-judgemental space to reflect, talk openly and be heard. Book in the Expo.
2 PM	Everyday Participation Learn the Seven Modes of Everyday Participation: a simple tool to help people to get closer and contribute in small but meaningful ways.	Childcare Co-operatives: Transforming Early Years Explore examples of co-operative and community-led nurseries and offer advice to take action.
3 PM	Land Ownership &amp; Racial Justice ★ stage Land in our Names & Shared Assets explore the relationship between land & race, and look at what needs to change to deliver racial justice.
4 PM

- Presentation
- Panel Discussion
- Workshop

★ stage
This session will take place on the Stage. Find the 'Stage' option on the left-hand panel. All other sessions will take place in the 'sessions' area.

Available Throughout

- Networking
Network just like you would at an in-person event. The connection discovery tool pairs you up in one-on-one conversations via live video.
- Expo
Visit the virtual booth exhibition hall. You'll find pre-recorded videos, special offers, and have a chance to chat live with some of the exhibitors.
- Catch Up
Catch up viewing will be available for a selection of sessions after 5pm each day.

For more information visit stirtoaction.com/festival

