- Termination for Insolvency: This Agreement shall be deemed terminated immediately in the event that:
 - Customer files a petition in bankruptcy, makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, petitions for the appointment of a receiver or trustee for all or a portion of Customer's property, or dissolves or liquidates; or (ii) a petition for bankruptcy is filed against Customer, or a receiver or trustee is appointed for all or a portion of Customer's property; or (iii) Customer admits in writing its inability to pay debts when due. In the event of termination for insolvency of Customer, Company may block Customer's access to the Services, and in addition, may retain all payments made hereunder, and recover charges and costs owed by Customer, as well as any other damages Company may have sustained because of Customer's insolvency, including, but not limited to, attorney and collection agency fees.

No such termination shall relieve Customer's obligation to pay fees and miscellaneous charges accrued up to the effective date of the termination. Furthermore, in the event of early termination of this Agreement (other than due to material uncured breach by Company) prior to the expiration date of the Initial Term or any Renewal Term, Customer shall be obligated to pay to Company 100% of the fees that Company would have received if this Agreement had remained in effect until its scheduled expiration date (with the amount of each remaining month's fee being equal to the average monthly fee charged during the immediately preceding six (6) month period). Such fees shall be paid within thirty (30) days after the effective date of termination and prior to any release of Customer data from Company Service. Customer agrees that (a) a breach by Customer under this Agreement is a breach under all other agreements between Customer and Company, and a breach by Customer under any other agreement between Company and Customer is a breach of this Agreement, and (b) all other agreements between Customer and Company are amended to include this provision.
- Suspension of Services: Company may suspend Customer's access to the Services immediately, without notice, if: (i) certain third party licenses or access to third party components of the payment processing services are terminated; (ii) Customer causes or fails to fix a security breach; (iii) Company reasonably believes Customer's breach compromises the security of the payment processing services; (iv) Company reasonably believes fraudulent transactions are being submitted on Customer's account knowingly or negligently; (v) Customer's financial processor or financial institution requires such suspension; (vi) Customer fails to pay any fees when due and does not cure such failure within ten (10) days; (vii) Customer fails to upgrade to the most current software version, security updates and/or patches; or (viii) Customer fails to materially comply with this Agreement and does not cure such failure within ten (10) days.

4. ADDITIONAL PAYMENT TERMS

- a. On-Site Expenses. Customer will be billed for the expenses incurred in connection with the performance of any services, training, consulting or other services provided on-site at Customer's location (including in connection with launching the Services), including the reasonable travel and per day expenses of each trainer or consultant. Pre-scheduled services which are to be performed on-site at Customer's location may not be cancelled or re-scheduled within thirty (30) days of the beginning of such pre-scheduled services. In the event that Customer cancels or reschedules pre-scheduled on-site services within such thirty (30) day period, Customer shall be required to reimburse Company for any pre-paid non-cancellable pre-scheduled expenses associated with the on-site services.
- b. Service Fees. Customer shall pay monthly managed service fees ("Monthly Managed Service Fees") in accordance with terms set forth in the Order Form.
- c. Adjustment of Managed Service Fees Upon Purchase of a Target. If Customer merges with, acquires or otherwise purchases (a "Purchase") an association, branch, or facility (the "Target"), then Customer agrees to submit new Form A within thirty (30) days after the effective date of the Purchase, and Customer's monthly managed service fees as described above shall be recalculated to include Target's annualized financial results as reflected in the updated Form A. Customer agrees that the increased fee may be charged to Customer as of the date that the Target site is activated and launched on Company's software. If Customer fails to submit an updated Form A within thirty (30) days after a Purchase of a Target, then the penalty fees set forth in Section 4(e) below may be applied by Company beginning in the month after the Purchase, and Customer shall be deemed to be in breach. Customer acknowledges and agrees that additional system configuration, data conversion, training and consulting services, at Company's then-current rates, may be necessary to launch the Target on Daxko Operations.

- d. Additional Fees. Additional services are offered at the then current Company rate. Customer will provide authorization to Company before any additional services are performed. Additional services may include, but are not limited to, data conversion, additional training, programming, exit data fees, data extract fees, de-tokenization fees, marketing, and other professional services.
- e. Past Due Payments; Late Fees. Interest charges of one and a half percent (1.50%) per month (or the highest rate permissible under applicable law, if less) will accrue daily on all amounts not received by Company when due. In addition, Company shall be entitled to block Customer's access to Services (with or without terminating this Agreement or affecting Customer's obligation to make payments under this Agreement) if Customer is more than thirty (30) days delinquent on any payments under this Agreement or any other agreement with Company. The obligation to pay monthly managed service fees and all other amounts due hereunder is an independent, unconditional covenant, and under no circumstances shall Customer have any right to offset its payments to Company. If any amount owed by Customer under this Agreement or any other agreement with Company is sixty (60) or more days overdue, Company may, without limiting Company other rights and remedies, accelerate Customer's unpaid fee obligations under this and such other agreements so that all such obligations become immediately due and payable, and suspend Company's Services to Customer until such amounts are paid in full. If Customer does not turn in a completed Form A to Company (where required by the Order Form), Company will apply late fees in the amount of five percent (5%) per month against the Customer's current monthly managed service fee until the completed Form A has been received.
- f. Taxes. Customer shall pay any and all applicable international, federal, state, and local sales, use, value-added, excise, duty, and any other taxes, fees or duties (other than taxes based on Company's net income) that are assessed on or as a result of the Services. Any such taxes, fees and duties collected by Company from Customer on behalf of a governmental agency shall not be considered a part of, a deduction from, or an offset against, payments due to Company for the Services hereunder.
- g. Late Fees. If any payment due Company pursuant to this Agreement is not made within ten (10) days of the due date, Company reserves the right to charge to Customer a late fee equal to Thirty-Five and No/100 Dollars ($35.00) in addition to the interest provisions contained herein.
- h. Data Export. Upon termination of the Agreement, and subject to payment of all fees due under this Agreement, Company agrees to provide, in an industry standard format, an export of Customer's data in accordance with Company's then-current data export policy at then current standard fees.
- i. Statements for Fees. Statements for the fees quoted herein will be sent via electronic mail to Customer within the first five (5) business days of the service month. If Customer does not dispute the statements within five (5) days of receipt, then Customer's designated bank account will be automatically debited on the fifteenth (15th) day of the month. Statements for one-time, training, and consulting fees and other reimbursable expenses will be sent via electronic mail to Customer following the performance of the services and will be automatically debited ten (10) days from the date of the statement if not contested. Company does not accept payment by check. All payments in the Agreement are denominated in United States dollars.

5. CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITIES; COMPLIANCE WITH THE LAW

- a. Authorized Representatives. Customer agrees that it will only allow its Customer Users to have access to Services and that it shall be responsible for any use or misuse of Services by such persons.

Company reserves the right to terminate Customer's use of Services, if Company, in its sole discretion, determines that Customer's use of Services is in violation of this Agreement, or is unlawful or inappropriate as described above. Notwithstanding the above, Company has no obligation to monitor any material posted through the Services. Any liability for any such inappropriate or unlawful material posted by Customer shall be Customer's. Customer represents and warrants that all email addresses used by this service have been properly obtained and has followed all provisions of the CAN-SPAM Act (USA) or all Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission (CRTC) regulations (Canada).

The deployment process for installation and training regarding Customer's use of the Services is set forth in the Order Form and a subsequent statement of work ("SOW"). The time for such installation and training is only an estimate and may be shorter or longer depending on the circumstances. Customer shall be responsible for the Startup and Training Costs set forth in the Order Form or SOW, which such costs are non-refundable and include the following:

- Initial Setup: Company will create a unique instance of the Services for Customer in accordance with applicable industry practice. Training will be scheduled on dates and times mutually agreed to between the Parties. Once a mutually agreeable schedule is made, Company will notify Customer via email of the proposed schedule. If Customer cancels or reschedules training after this notification has been made ("Late Travel Cancellation Notice"), then Customer shall be responsible for the reimbursement of any change fees, cancellation fees, non-reimbursable deposits, or related expenses incurred by Company in connection with such cancellation or rescheduling, which shall also be deemed "Reimbursable Expenses." Reimbursable Expenses will be automatically withdrawn from the Customer bank account indicated in the Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Authorization Form attached to this Agreement, and Company will provide the Customer with an itemized expense report for incurred expenses within 30 days of (i) the completion of the on-site training or (ii) the receipt of a Late Travel Cancellation Notice, in the event that onsite training is cancelled.

Customer hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Software constitutes valuable IP Rights (as hereinafter defined) of Company, including, but not limited to, copyrights and trade secrets, and that except for the rights of use, modification, and copying expressly granted to Customer herein, Company now holds and shall retain all rights, title, and interest to the Services, as well as trade names or trademarks as Company may from time to time by written notice permit or require Customer to use in connection with the software (such trade names and trademarks are collectively referred to as the "Product Name"), and any documentation with respect thereto. - e. Technical Support. Customer acknowledges that any and all technical assistance and support provided by Company relating to the API Service is beyond the scope of standard technical support under this Agreement and shall be billed at Company's then-current standard rates.
- f. Security Breach. Customer agrees that in the event of any breach or suspected breach in relation to (i) any Customer Data disclosed in violation of Vendor's agreement with Company with respect to the API Service or the Customer Data Access Request Form, or (ii) any actual or suspected unauthorized access, disclosure or use of Customer Data that Vendor accesses via the API Service (each event being a "Security Breach"), Vendor, and not Company, shall be responsible for containing such Security Breach, mitigating potential risks to affected individuals and notifying affected individuals and regulatory authorities of the Security Breach where required by law. Vendor shall be solely responsible for all costs or expenses associated with any remedial actions or notifications.
- g. Release. Customer hereby expressly releases Company and its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, employees, consultants and agents from any claims, demands, damages, causes of action, suits or liability for any losses or damages (either to Customer or Vendor) of any kind, whatsoever, that may arise in connection with the access, use (or misuse), handling, receipt, disclosure, or storage of data by

14. SUNSET POLICY

Sunset/Sunsetting or End of Life (EOL) refers to when Company ceases marketing or offering a particular Licensed Product or a Major Release for a particular Licensed Product. When a Licensed Product is sunsetted, it enters the sunset, or EOL, period. The Sunset or EOL Period starts when the next major version of a product is released—or at such other time when Company announces, in a format of its choosing, to customers that a given product has been discontinued—and ends at the time designated by Company in the EOL or Sunset announcement, which may vary, but shall not in any case extend beyond nine months except as explicitly stated in writing by Company. Licensed Product refers to the Company software product or services you license, which is governed by the applicable agreement between you and Company.

Releases for Licensed Product are categorized as Major Releases or Maintenance Releases.

Major Release/Version means a new release of the Licensed Product that incorporates the last Maintenance Release(s) (if any) and may include additional enhancements to the Licensed Product. Major Releases may include architectural changes and major feature changes, as well as new features and functionality. The terms "Release" and "Version" are used interchangeably in this document.

Maintenance Release means a release of the Licensed Product that provides cumulative patches for a particular Major Release. A Maintenance Release typically does not contain new features or new functionality. Patches are software code updates that resolve specific software deficiencies. These are typically designated as a build number associated with a specific release.

Support Services are the maintenance support services for Licensed Product. Customers must have a current agreement and be up to date on all amounts due under the agreement in order to receive Support Services (in accordance with this Policy).

Company will provide Full Support for Licensed Product for which the customer has a current agreement for the current version of any software or services with all Maintenance Releases applied. For customers with the current major version of the software who have not applied all available patches, support may be limited to configuration assistance, activation assistance, and general questions.

Company provides a more limited level of Support Services for software that is in the Sunset Period. Limited support is provided for customers who have installed all patches available to the Sunset Version. Support services may not be provided if all available fixes have not been installed. If all patches have been installed, the customer shall provide Company with a fully reproducible scenario in which the error occurs. For the first nine (9) months after Sunset is initiated for a product, or as otherwise agreed by Company, in writing, Company may, at its option, provide an additional patch to the Sunset Version or offer a work-around. Partial support will be subject to the availability of resources and may be limited as Company determines. At nine (9) months after Sunset, Company shall cease all support of the Sunset Version or the Licensed Product except as otherwise agreed by Company in writing.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, in the event that any Licensed Products or Versions thereof are scheduled to reach EOL, Company shall not be required to provide additional support if it has offered to Customer a Company-affiliated replacement platform or new version of the Licensed Products with reasonably comparable functionality at similar commercial terms for the remainder of Customer's then-current Term. In the absence of such a replacement platform or new version of Licensed Products such Licensed Products will be supported by Company in accordance with the applicable Order Form and Service Agreement for the remainder of the then-current Term of such agreement.

Notwithstanding anything otherwise stated in this Agreement, the Services are subject to Company's sunset or discontinuation policy ("Sunset Policy") and Company reserves the absolute right to discontinue all support for the Services, or for any features, services or content accessible through the Services, in accordance with the Sunset Policy stated in this subsection. Company focuses on supporting rapidly changing technologies, and on innovating to provide customers with the most stable and useful set of products and services possible, and consequently, products and services may go through major updates or be replaced with newer products. As new versions, products, and services are introduced, Company actively plans for sunset of older services and software versions as well as specific product features. Below is Company sunset policy ("Policy") to help customers better manage their end-of-life transition and to understand the role Company can play in helping to migrate to updated alternative Company technologies. This Policy explains the type of support services Company will provide for Services during a product's life cycle. For the purposes of this Policy, "Support" and "Maintenance" are used interchangeably.

This shall not apply in the event of fraudulent concealment or the deliberate or grossly negligent causation of an error.

Each party shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the other's Confidential Information is not disclosed or distributed by its employees or agents in breach of the terms of this Agreement, but in no event will either party use less effort to protect the Confidential Information of the other party than it uses to protect its own Confidential Information of equivalent importance. Each party will ensure that any agents or subcontractors that are permitted to access any of the other's Confidential Information are legally bound to comply with the obligations set forth herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information may be disclosed as required by law, provided that, where possible, the disclosing party will provide the non-disclosing party with sufficient advance notice of the official request for the information to enable the non-disclosing party to exercise any rights it may have to challenge or limit the statutory authority to receive such Confidential Information.
