

Our new business model makes it easy for you to develop a significant recurring revenue stream. And all from your existing client base.

Everyone needs insurance, and none more so than busy, successful people whose property assets, possessions and lifestyle require insurance tailored to their needs. With Archipelago, you can now give your clients the insurance they deserve with our unique, flexible, multi-cover policy.

Special features make it easy for clients to switch

- monthly direct debit without APR
- unlimited cover for buildings and contents
- guarantee to match clients' previous cover
- no charges for policy amendments
- evergreen policies remove annual renewal cycle
- one number to call for all your claims needs
- class-leading claims service
- digital self-service option for minor claims

We've made it easy for you to do business

Our Archipelago Platform online trading system, linked to 14 databases, allows you to quote clients and arrange cover in less than ten minutes. Administration is minimal and the process is paper free. You don't need technical insurance knowledge or to worry about compliance. And you can manage accounts from mobile devices and use the sales dashboard to spot sales opportunities.

Our underwriting capital

Arch Insurance (UK) Ltd is a wholly owned subsidiary of Arch Capital Group Ltd, a Bermuda-based company with approximately USD11.17 billion in capital (as at 31/12/2018) providing insurance, reinsurance and mortgage insurance on a worldwide basis through its wholly owned subsidiaries.

Why general insurance?

- A new revenue stream diversifies income
- Taps into clients' existing expenditure
- Completes your clients' protection portfolio
- Provides insight into clients' net worth
- An opportunity for client engagement
- Minimal on-going administration
- Similar products not widely available
- High retention rates
- Locks out your competitors
