

Encourage others!

That's the way you make people feel great by the words you say.

Directions: Practice the act of encouragement by finding positive traits to encourage in one another. Write your name next to the star below. Then pass the paper around the room, and ask everyone to write one word describing a positive trait about you.

_____ is...

A large rectangular frame containing a smaller rectangular frame, which in turn contains a square frame. Inside the square frame, there is a graphic that says "A Champion" with two stars above the word "A".
