FIFE CREAMERY

QUALITY FOOD AND INNOVATION SINCE 1957

We've been helping Scottish businesses make great success of Food to Go for more than 30 years.

Let us do the same for you.

"The team at Fife Creamery understand what we are trying to achieve on our Food to Go journey, they continually support and motivate our business"
Diane Greenough, Director, David's Kitchen

YOUR NEEDS ARE UNIQUE

Whether you've been in the business for years and you're looking to diversify, or you're just starting out, you know the value of building your business around the unique needs of your customers and offering them just what they are looking for.

THERE IS NO "ONE SIZE FITS ALL"

When it comes to Food to Go, we identify with the proud characteristics of the independent trader and understand that your needs are as individual as you are. Whatever you do, it must be just right for you and your customers.

THIS IS FOOD TO GO MADE FOR YOU

We work with you to understand your own very specific requirements to create a Food to Go solution that is perfect for you, and only you.

Delicious food that your customers simply won't be able to resist.

Food to Go success is measured by your ability to serve great tasting, consistently prepared food solutions that bring your customers back time and again.

This is why we work together with you to create exciting and inspiring menus from our extensive, top quality Food to Go range that are perfectly suited to your customer mix, whether you're in Stockbridge or Barrhead, Melrose or Portree.

We've also worked tirelessly to attain the highest food safety accreditations possible, so that not only can you be sure that our selected foods are delicious, you can also feel secure that every product we deliver will meet the highest food standards.

Create the perfect morning, lunch or evening meals from our extensive range of selected Food to Go menu items.

With massive growth in the sector already, and even more anticipated over the coming years, we're 100% committed to making Food to Go work for you.

Dedicated support and our very own training centre - we're behind you every step of the way.

Brilliant training facilities and expertise

Our Fife training centre is proof that we take supporting you very seriously. As well as being the perfect venue to learn from our expert partners, it is also a place for stimulating the creation of ideas and the 'art of the possible'

Work only with the best

As with our exceptional food suppliers, you can be confident that our proven partners in design, equipment and installation are all at the cutting edge within their sectors. Or you may wish to engage your own suppliers. The choice is yours.

Totally committed service, back-up and support

We know that while the opportunity Food to Go presents is outstanding, it can also be quite a daunting proposition for anyone unfamiliar with how to work it into their existing business.

Our dedicated support team are on hand throughout the country to assist and drive your FTG business forward. We provide promotions, link meal deals, portion control insights, merchandising and of course on-going training requirements. We truly are in this with you for the long haul.

4 stages to getting you up and running

- 1 Consultation

We start by talking with you to understand your Food to Go expectations and goals, including the service times of the day you may be focused on. If required, we can connect you with our fit out, design and equipment partners - all well established and respected industry leaders.
- 2 Demonstration & inspiration

The next stage is a session with us in our dedicated training centre to show you just what is possible in Food to Go. You'll hear from our food experts, sample some delicious food, understand the profit opportunity and see equipment and displays - all to give you a clearer idea of just what you could achieve.
- 3 Explore menu possibilities

Our extensive range means the options and combinations are almost limitless, and you'll never be locked into a pre-set menu. You have the freedom to settle on food choices perfect for your customers - flexibility that will prove vital as your Food to Go experience evolves.
- 4 Supply & support

With great food and friendly, experienced support we back you up throughout your FTG journey, and will continue to be there for you as you develop your Food to Go mission.

We're in this together.

Since we first opened our doors in 1957, we have become renowned for our commitment to helping independent Scottish food retailers and foodservice providers be the best they can be.

This commitment continues as we support the unprecedented demand for Food to Go through providing the best food, expertise and training available. Our reward is in playing a part in the success of you - our customers.

No matter where you are on your Food to Go journey, speak to us today to find out more about where we can take you next.
