

Roadmap to Shared Prosperity in Florida

Smart fiscal policies can help create jobs now, boost incomes, promote equity, and prime Florida for long-term, shared prosperity.

1 Unleash Floridians' Potential and Boost Productivity by Investing in Education and Health

- Unleash children's potential with quality early learning, thriving public schools, and quality, supported teachers.
- Build a stronger workforce by expanding access to higher education and job training.
- Improve workers' productivity and financial security with affordable health care.

2 Launch Public Infrastructure Projects to Create Jobs, Spur Growth, Promote Equity, and Improve Climate Resilience

- Repair and build schools.
- Build and restore roads, public transit, and water systems.
- Restore and conserve Florida's natural resources.
- Invest in community-based climate resiliency and disaster recovery planning.

3 Boost Household Incomes for Shared Prosperity

- Raise working families' earnings.
- Buoy individuals and families facing major barriers to work.
- Reduce the number of adults and youth behind bars.
- Let immigrants contribute fully.

4 Clean Up and Modernize the Tax Code for a Stronger Future

- Clean up special-interest tax breaks, incentives, and loopholes.
- Ask individuals and corporations benefiting the most from a state's economy to pay their share.
- Protect investments in people and plan for Florida's future growth.

FLORIDA

POLICY

INSTITUTE

Shaping policy to build a brighter future for all Floridians.

The Florida Policy Institute is an independent public policy research nonprofit dedicated to advancing policies and budgets that improve the economic mobility and quality of life for all Floridians. We do this through research, strategic outreach, coalition building, and policy advocacy.

“Facts and research matter more now than ever. The Florida Policy Institute produces highly relevant policy research that organizations can use to not only guide their own work, but to join policy discussions that affect working families from a knowledgeable standpoint.”

— FPI Board Chair Mireya Eavey,
Executive Vice President of CareerEdge
& Education Initiatives, The Greater
Sarasota Chamber of Commerce

“Through its timely and easy-to-read analyses, the Florida Policy Institute has become a trusted source of information on issues that affect Florida families. The impact of their work will only continue to grow.”

— Nick Johnson, Senior Vice President,
State Fiscal Policy Center on Budget and Policy Priorities
