"I used to think __________________,
and now I think ___________________.”

- Your Name

// Final Reflection

In 2-3 short paragraphs (200-300 words max), explain the shift or transformation in your “I used to think ...” statement above, and why you chose it.

If helpful, you can revisit your “what is design?” mindmaps, your Ambiguity worksheet and metaphors, or your DP1 journey map to get a sense of where you were earlier in the quarter and where you are now.

// Abilities in Action Story

Snappy headline for your story here

Select one of the stories from your workbook, and using that basic scaffolding as a springboard, narrate that story with a little more creative license.

This should be 1-2 short paragraphs (150 words max), and capture a story of a time when you were stuck, how you experimented with exercising a design ability, and what you learned in the process.
