Opening: October 2019

Dominica is positioning itself as the newest luxury Caribbean island with the launch of the five-star Cabrits Resort & Spa Kempinski, which is nestled in the jungle of Cabrits National Park. The resort was built to keeping in line with the island's lush natural beauty and ecosystem, while still offering guests first-class service and amenities and an enriching nature-centric experience. The 151-room hotel will feature sleek design and panoramic views of the Caribbean Sea, and include a state-of-the-art spa, gym, all-weather tennis court, and hot and cold water pools.

Where: Los Cabos, Mexico

Opening: October 2019

Los Cabos is bursting at the seams with upscale resorts, but this stunner from Four Seasons stands out—not the least because of its hidden-away location far from the busy tourist corridor. Envisioned by Guerin Glass Architects, the contemporary design of Four Seasons Resort Los Cabos at Costa Palmas integrates indoor-outdoor living, with all rooms and suites having private terraces with spectacular views of the Sea of Cortez. There are five dining options, a massive spa and wellness center, four pools, a Robert Trent Jones II 18-hole golf course, a sports complex with tennis, volleyball, and basketball courts (in addition to a fitness center), and a well-stocked teen center and Kids for All Seasons program. The resort is also the first Four Seasons to have its own private marina, making sunset sails or sport fishing expeditions easy to access.
