Whether you prefer lavish or laid back, there is no shortage of new resorts rolling out the welcome mat for Canadians escaping the winter winds at home. From sprawling hotels on the beach to family-friendly all-inclusives and swanky adults-only retreats, check out and check into a boatload of shiny new beds for heads in the Caribbean.

A Grand entrance

The hot ticket this spring is the Royalton Grenada Resort and Spa opening on March 1 as the island's largest resort and the first Royalton on the Spice Island. A Blue Diamond Resort under the Sunwing Travel Group umbrella, the new all-inclusive on Tamarind Bay comes with 269 suites, 5 restaurants, 3 bars, Royal Spa and room service around the clock.

"The opening of Royalton Grenada means Montrealers can look forward to a familiar brand on a stunning beach," said Patricia Maher, CEO, Grenada Tourism Authority. "With three Air Canada Rouge flights weekly from Toronto and potential new Sunwing flights, Grenada is easily accessible from Montreal."

Vacation packages are available from Sunwing and Air Canada Vacations. —

Thirty minutes from Sangster International Airport in Montego Bay, Ocean Coral Spring makes its debut as a new family-friendly resort with 513 suites, 10 restaurants and four bars including one inside a bowling alley. Striking with the hands-down funkiest lobby in Jamaica; the all-inclusive is outfitted with tennis courts, ice cream parlor and spa. — www.oceanhotels.net/en/jamaica-hotels/ocean-coral-spring

Designed and owned by the hosts of Canada's House of Bryan and Bryan Inc. on HGTV, Caerula Mar Club is the first hotel to open on South Andros Island in nearly two decades. ## Worth the splurge

At the top of their game, Club Med opened a new resort on the east coast of the Dominican Republic. All-inclusive with 335-rooms, Club Med Michès Playa Esmeralda is a vacation playground with four distinct villages and a creative roster of fun stuff like flying trapeze lessons and a Secret Chocolate Room for kids with a sweet tooth. With a nod to the environment, no plastic straws are used and employee uniforms are made from recycled plastic bottles.

"Club Med has been operating for 70 years and has a strong presence in Quebec," said Amélie Brouhard, VP, Club Med Canada & Mexico. "Travellers trust the brand and know that while every resort is different, there is an endless array of activities with many of the resorts accessible from Montreal with frequent and affordable direct flights." — www.clubmed.ca//miches-resort

Also new in the Dominican Republic, adjacent Hyatt all-inclusives are open on Juanillo Beach in Punta Cana. Hyatt Ziva Cap Cana is for families while Hyatt Zilara Cap Cana is adults-only with a martini bar, swim-up suites and Indian restaurant set inside a train car. —

On the Dutch side of the dual-nation island, Morgan Resort in St. Maarten opens March 15 close to the Princess Juliana International Airport. Welcoming nature lovers, Cabrits Resort & Spa Kempinski Dominica is the island's first five-star resort and the 2nd Kempinski in the Caribbean, after the Gran Hotel Manzana Kempinski in Havana.
