Motion by Jarvis, supported by Young to pay all regular bills for the month. ALL IN FAVOR. PASSED.

DEPARTMENT REPORTS – none

CORRESPONDENCE

Heather received notice from the County that there are two parcels that were foreclosed on June 29, 2020. State has 1st choice, we have 2nd. The Board has chosen to let them go to the landbank for resale.

PUBLIC COMMENT - none

OLD BUSINESS:

➤ Recycling Center Purchases.

MOTION

Motion by Kuziak, supported by Wright to approve the purchase of the signage through the State of Michigan, Michigan State Industries for $300.22. This did not include the two remaining street signs that are needed. ALL IN FAVOR. PASSED

➤ Roads- Guest Speaker – Ken Hulka

- Ken Hulka gave an educational PowerPoint presentation on how road money is spent and when and how the McNitt Act works. He was very informative, answered all our questions and was willing to stay as long as necessary to make sure the board and residents fully understood the duties of the MCRC and Cedar Creek Roads. Linda asked how to best approach follow-up to this road discussion. Members felt that a work session was the most appropriate method. Session was scheduled for July 23, 2020 at 6:30 pm.

NEW BUSINESS

- Appointment of Josh Giddings to Planning Commission – Linda Aerts made brief remarks about why Josh was perfect for the Planning Commission – most especially, he always placed Cedar Creek Township first. Linda also thanked Wes Lomax for his service to Cedar Creek Township and all that he has provided to the people of this community through his many contributions to this community.

MOTION

Motion Kuziak, supported by Jarvis to approve the appointment of Josh Giddings to the planning commission. ALL IN FAVOR. PASSED

COMMISSIONER COMMENT

Commissioner Foster informed us that the full Commission Board moved to approve a resolution to Declare Racism as a Public Health Crisis. Health West is testing all Nursing Homes and Foster Care for Covid-19.

BOARD COMMENT

Bob is still working with DTE on natural gas.

Heather let everyone know tax bills are out.

Stephanie has received several calls about how great the news letter was. She thanked Linda for doing such a great job.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Dennis Rice had some question regarding is property zoning. He was told the 1st place to start is with our zoning administrator and he would need to make an appointment with Lorraine.

ADJOURNMENT
