Draft Cocktails

HOUSE-MADE COCKTAILS

SINGLE SERVE SLAPS 12 | 8

KETEL ONE GFR • BLACK TEA • LEMON OLEO • LEMON JUICE • BUBBLES

Traditionally served in a group setting, this clarified milk punch follows the rule of 1:2:3:4 and is too good to be shared. The clarification makes this cocktail, soft, citrusy and refreshing. YAY SCIENCE!

SEMOVENTE 75 12 | 8

TANQUERAY 10 • CAMPARI • ABSINTHE • LEMON OLEO • STRAWBERRY • LEMON • BUBBLES

This sparkling wine cocktail takes gin and juice to the next level, with a delightfully dry and bubbly finish. Beware, this one has enough kick to make you feel like you were shelled by a Semovente 75mm Cannon.

DIDDY DO IT 14 | 10

DELEÓN BLANCO • APEROL • PASSION FRUIT • LIME • YUZU • AZBL • FIREWATER

This spicy margarita combines flavors of the tropics with a classic Italian aperitif to round out the earthy, spicy characteristics found in blue weber agave to create a refreshing sipper perfect for both seasons in Phoenix, Hot & Hotter.

IRISH OASIS 13 | 9

COCONUT TULLAMORE DEW • PASSOÃ • CASCADIA • FINO • LEMON • CARDAMOM MIST

This tart and refreshing cocktail features a coconut washed Irish whiskey, balanced with subtle flavors of passion fruit, almond, rose and cardamom.

HOUSE ROCK (N RYE) 12 | 8

GEORGE DICKEL RYE • ROTATING INFUSED FLAVORS • SUGAR • CITRUS OIL

This 'Old Fashioned' style cocktail is inspired by the Nineteenth Century craze, Rock N' Rye. Our House Rock (N Rye) uses different fruits, spices, botanicals and sugars to create a cocktail that changes with the seasons.

MINT JULEP

The Mint Julep, originally invented in the Southern USA in the 1800's, was a simple cocktail combination of bourbon sugar and mint over pebble ice, perfect for a hot day because of how quickly the ice melts. In 1938 the Mint Julep became the official cocktail of the Kentucky

Derby, which is what it is most famous for today. 120,000 Mint Juleps are enjoyed during each Kentucky Derby on average. We make ours the same way they would, to be enjoyed at the derby, with Old Forester. $10

NEGRONI

The Negroni has been an Italian favorite since its creation in 1919. Made of equal parts Commerce Gin, Campari & sweet vermouth this complex, bitter-sweet cocktail has found itself on many cocktail menus around the world for over a century. Many other versions of this drink exist such as its predecessor the Americano made with soda water in place of gin, the Sbagliato which uses sparkling wine, the Boulevardier which swaps the gin for bourbon (Bulleit) or the White Negroni which uses bianco vermouth and gentian liqueur in place of Campari. $12

SAZERAC

The Sazerac cocktail was born in 1838 when Antoine Amedie Peychaud, a New Orleans apothecary, mixed cognac with his proprietary Peychaud bitters. In the 1850s, the drink was the signature drink of the Sazerac Coffee House in New Orleans where it received its name and became the first "branded" cocktail. The Sazerac was later made with rye after cognac was less available in the late 1800's.

Ours is made using Bulleit Rye, Peychaud's and Absinthe. $12

PALOMA

The Paloma is the most popular cocktail in Mexico. Known as the poor man's Margarita, you would most commonly see a bottle of Tequila, Grapefruit soda and limes on the table. Our Paloma is served with Corazon Blanco, half a lime with a chili salt rim and a whole bottle of Squirt. $11

COSMOPOLITAN

Dale Degroff is known as the father of modern mixology which he credits to the Cosmo. This cocktail kick started the craft cocktail resurgence in the 90's. The Cosmo's success is widely attributed to Madonna being seen drinking one at the Rainbow Room in New York and the show "Sex and the City" which made this the drink of the 90's. Made with Ketel One Citron. Dry Curacao, Cranberry and lime juice with a flamed orange for its aromatic qualities. This light & refreshing martini is still enjoyed as a favorite today. $12

Created by New York bartender Sam Ross in 2005 at Milk and Honey, the Penicillin Cocktail takes the soothing flavors of honey, lemon juice & fresh ginger & combines them with Bank Note Peated Scotch Whiskey & the addition of a Laphroaig rinsed glass. This cocktail is one of the most riffed drinks in the modern cocktail world, & for good reason. $10

IRISH COFFEE

The Irish Coffee was brought to America in 1952 to the now famous Buena Vista Cafe in San Francisco where it was perfected. Before this the cocktail was invented in 1943 near Shannon Airport in Ireland. The importance to this cocktail comes from the balance that is achieved between sweet hot coffee, cold whipped cream and Slane Irish Whiskey. Because Phoenix is so hot, try it with our house-made cold brew for 1 dollar more. $10
