PRESS RELEASE

Alabama Independent School Association July 22, 2019

AISA ANNOUNCES SPRINGWOOD SCHOOL
AS AISA'S CLASS 2A PRESIDENT'S AWARD WINNER
FOR 2018-2019

Montgomery, AL - The Alabama Independent School Association is pleased to announce that Springwood School is the recipient of the AISA President's Award for the 2018-2019 school year. The President's Award was established by the AISA for the specific purpose of recognizing member schools that achieve academic excellence during the school year and it is awarded to only one school per academic classification, which are based on student enrollment.

The criteria for winning the AISA President's Award includes achievement in all areas of school excellence such as: academic achievement, professional development, extra-curricular involvement, school improvement and other activities that celebrate excellence in education. In addition, this award also serves as a symbol of recognition to the individuals who have given unselfishly of their time to serve as President to the Alabama Independent School Association.

The AISA has been steadfast in its efforts since 1970 to maintain an organization of independently operated non-public schools that are rich in diversity, committed to academic excellence, and deeply concerned about the growth and development of students. The association's goal is to provide quality educational services and programs that ultimately serve to enrich the educational experiences of the students within its member schools.

Springwood Head of School, Mr. Lowrie McCown stated, "Springwood School enters its 50th year being recognized as a top independent school in Alabama by winning the President's award for the 4th time in the past five years. This award is a testament to the commitment to high performance of our faculty and students!"
