Springwood welcomes Ty Galliher as Springwood International House Resident Coordinator

Ty Galliher joins the International House Staff at Springwood School.

Ty graduated from Point University with a degree in Business Administration with a minor in Biblical Studies. He played baseball for Point University and gained valuable experience working as a Campus Ministry Intern for Feast at Spring Road Christian Church in West Point, Georgia.

Ty has a heart for missions. Traveling to Guatemala, as well as and local areas, Ty has assisted and led construction projects, served meals, and various other tasks as outreach ministries to empower and inspire others. Also he has aided in several relief projects, including the recent damage from Hurricane Michael in Panama City, Florida.

Previously, Ty worked in the children's ministry at Oasis Children Center at Solid Rock Church in Columbus, Georgia, supervising and planning events for families. Ty's passion for student ministry lead him to volunteer at the Boys & Girls Club in Valley, Alabama, during college where he continually helped and encouraged students.

Director of the International Student Program at Springwood, Mrs. Ann Hixon said, "We are pleased to have Ty Galliher join us as the Resident Coordinator in the Springwood International House. In his previous positions, Ty has earned valuable experience in how to build relationships with young people. It is great to see the way he is engaging and assisting our international residential students living and going to school at Springwood this year."
