

Overview:

Caroil IADC DIT Confined Spaces Entry & Rescue is designed to expose and increase the awareness of the hazards associated with confined space work and to support all personnel to implement effective measures and precautions to perform tasks in a confined space environment.

Students will also have the opportunity to learn more about the several techniques and ways to perform confined space rescue operations and how to safely implement a rescue plan.

Requirements:

There are no mandatory pre-requisites to attend Caroil IADC DIT Confined Spaces Entry & Rescue course.

The course is designed for Floorhands, Derrickhands, Assistant Drillers, Drillers, Rig Mechanics, Rig Electricians and any other position whose duties requires to work in a confined space.

Course Delivery:

The course includes both theoretical and practical sessions, covering the following topics:

- Describe the specificities of a confined space
- Identify the confined spaces at the workplace
- Describe the risk control hierarchy principles applicable to the Confined Spaces
- Be familiar with Drilling Industry administrative safety tools related to confined spaces
- Know the approved equipment, selection and utilization to work in a confined space
- Demonstrate how to prepare and entry into a confined space
- Describe the confined space rescue plan and its importance

Certification:

- Written and practical tests will be performed
- Caroil Instructor will perform a competency assessment during the practical part of the training
- Successful completion of the course and a pass mark of 80% or above will result in a Caroil & IADC issued Certificate valid for two (2) years.

Contact:

Caroil Training Services
Nouveau-Port, BP46
Port-Gentil, Gabon

✉ training@caroil.fr
☎ +241 (0)65 659 854
@ www.caroil.fr

