

ONE ROCK CAPITAL PARTNERS FURTHER EXPANDS OPERATING PARTNER TEAM

NEW YORK, September 1, 2020 – One Rock Capital Partners, LLC (“One Rock”) is pleased to announce the addition of Mike Anderson to its team of Operating Partners. Mr. Anderson will focus on talent and organizational development at One Rock’s portfolio companies and brings over 30 years of experience in executive assessment and development, leadership team effectiveness, strategy, organizational design, change management and C-suite succession planning. Mr. Anderson spent the majority of his career at Spencer Stuart, where he was a Senior Partner and most recently served as Chief Innovation Officer and Global Head of Products and Services. Prior to Spencer Stuart, Mr. Anderson was a consultant at McKinsey & Company.

“We are excited about the knowledge and expertise that Mike brings to the One Rock team,” said Managing Partner Scott Spielvogel. “Developing strong talent and efficient organizations is a key component for success, and we believe Mike’s expertise will be a strong resource for our portfolio companies,” added Managing Partner Tony Lee.

“One Rock has a strong reputation for making operational improvements at its portfolio companies,” commented Mr. Anderson. “I look forward to partnering with One Rock investment professionals and portfolio company management teams to optimize organizational structure and create value at the portfolio company level.”

Working alongside Operating Partners has been a key part of One Rock’s strategy since its inception. Traditionally, One Rock’s Operating Partners have included industry experts. In recent years, One Rock has expanded its Operating Partner team to include functional experts. Mr. Anderson joins a growing team of functional Operating Partners, including Adam Feuer (Supply Chain & Procurement), Tom Fountain (Information Technology), Andrea Greene (Financial Reporting and Planning / Human Resources) and Mark Oakeson (Lean Manufacturing).
