Public & Products Liability Insurance

What is Public Liability Insurance?

If an accident or unforeseeable incident causes damage or injury to someone (other than your employees), you may be found legally liable to cover the costs.

What is Product Liability Insurance?

No matter how stringent your company is, mistakes can happen. For example, you may design to sell a product that causes a customer harm. Even if you're not at fault, you could risk serious financial damage through legal and court costs if a customer decided to sue you. Product Liability Insurance is designed to help protect your business if you're sued because a product you sell, assemble or supply has caused harm to a person or property.

Who should consider it?

While Public and Product Liability Insurance isn't mandatory for the most businesses, it is recommended for all companies. That's because the unpredictable nature of accidents makes them hard to prevent - and the costs of being sued can be extraordinarily high.

Did you know?

In 2014, property and business serviced was the sector with the highest exposure to Public Liability risk. It was followed by construction; retail; agriculture, forestry & fishing; personal services; and health and community services.

9,000

In 2013, there were close to 32,000 Public Liability claims made. Of these claims, just over 9,000 were claims for bodily injury.

429

Since 2012, the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) has recalled an average of 429 products each year.

What can it cover?

Public and Products Liability Insurance helps protect your legal liability to third parties, including clients, customers and the public for injury or damage to their property, caused by your business. It can even cover emotional distress or shock that your business causes another person.

It will generally pay your costs of investigating, defending and settling claims, as well as any compensation payment you are found legally liable to pay.

Depending on your policy, Public and Products Liability Insurance can cover:

| | TYPE OF COVER | POTENTIAL BENEFITS |
|---|---------------------------|--|
|  | Personal Injury | If somebody is wrongfully injured by your actions or your product, Public and Products Liability Insurance can cover you for your liability to pay damages to the claimant |
|  | Property Damage | If property is damaged due to your actions or your products, Public and Products Liability Insurance can cover you for your liability to pay damages to the claimant |
|  | Advertising Injury | Liability arising out of advertising carried out by or on behalf of the insured |

What usually isn't covered?

Exclusions, the excess you need to pay and limits of liability can vary greatly depending on your insurer. Policies generally won't include cover for:

- Cost of rectifying faulty workmanship
- Damage to your own product
- Claims by employees
- Claims arising out of the use of a registered motor vehicle
- Claims related to asbestos

Case Study

The offshore manufacturer of Kate's sunscreen accidentally contaminates the product with chemicals that cause customers to break out in a painful rash.

They file a class suit against Kate to compensate them for the injury. Luckily, Kate's policy covers her for the costs of going to court and the damages awarded to the customers.
