

Kylie Reich

ASSOCIATE

Kylie Reich graduated from Santa Clara University School of Law, and is the recipient of the 2013 Witkin award for being top of class in criminal law. During law school, Kylie was a judicial intern in both the family division and drug court at the Santa Clara Superior Court. Kylie also contributed at the Katharine and George Alexander Community Law Center, where she advocated for worker's rights by conducting interviews, writing and submitting claim forms and directly contributed to settlement wins. Kylie has practiced family law exclusively since her admission to the California Bar. Kylie has appeared in San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. Prior to joining Delacey, Riebel & Shindell, LLP Kylie worked with several family law practitioners in private practice throughout the Bay Area.
