Celebrating the American Spirit in Baltimore & Beyond

GROUP TOURS 2020

Star-Spangled Baltimore: Experience the heroism of Baltimore and her citizens during the War of 1812. Visit the home of the Star-Spanner Banner in this patriotic tour of Baltimore that features the Flag House Museum and Fort McHenry. Learn about how this 30' x 42' flag was sewn by hand and put together in a neighboring brewery. Enjoy lunch in a local Ale House.

Ports, Sports and Neighborhoods: Baltimore is a port city that loves its sports teams. This tour takes you behind the scenes at Camden Yards, into the bedroom of Babe Ruth's family and along the cobblestone streets of 18th century maritime neighborhoods. Enjoy lunch on your own in popular Fells Point~ the area with more pubs and bars than any other neighborhood its size in the country.

Maritime Magic: Captain John Smith explored and detailed his visits to the Inner Harbor long before Baltimore gained notoriety as a ship building center and a gritty port city. Today it is a popular tourist destination. Explore the historic ships that call the Inner Harbor home and tour one of them. Enjoy a delicious buffet lunch at the legendary Phillips Seafood Restaurant. Then enjoy a narrated 50-minute cruise of the Inner Harbor.

Towne and Country: Explore the lives of the rich and famous as you travel north on Charles Street to northern Baltimore County. Your guide will entertain you with stories of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, F Scott Fitzgerald, the Cone sisters (benefactors of the Baltimore Museum of Art), Kevin Planck (founder of Under Armour), Michael Phelps and more. Then enjoy lunch inside the stables at Ladew Topiary Gardens, one of the top 5 Topiary Gardens in the United States. Have time to tour the home and gardens of Harvey Ladew the bachelor who enjoyed fox hunting with British royalty. Stop at Boordy Vineyards for a wine tasting and tour, a spirited way to complete an elegant day.

Rails and Sails: Baltimore is the birthplace of American railroading. Begin your day with a visit to the B&O Railroad Museum-known for its amazing collection of railcars and memorabilia. Next travel to the Mill area of Baltimore where cotton duck used for sails was produced. This area is now redeveloped with restaurants, residences and retail space. Here you will enjoy lunch. Complete your day with a tour and ride at the Baltimore Streetcar Museum.
