

The LS01 stool combines Nico's signatures in one design: sweeping form, absence of hardware, and beautiful wood fabrication. Designed as though it were carved out of a single wood block, LS01 translates its underlying beauty and deceptive simplicity through its structure.

The stool size and height have been carefully calibrated to provide a reassuring and balanced seating experience for the user.

Use LS01 as a short stool, as a beautiful pedestal for a handbag or vase, or stand it alone as a sculptural element in your space. You'll discover the LS01 works seamlessly into various home and office environments.
