HELSINKI SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

HELBUS is a private business school in Finland founded in 2012. The school offers undergraduate and postgraduate degrees in business and management through its partnership programme with the University of Northampton in the UK. It also offers the Higher National Diploma, a two-year qualification accredited by Pearson, the largest accrediting organisation in the world.

Programmes at HELBUS are taught completely in English. Our visiting professors come from prestigious universities in seventeen countries and will challenge you to think globally. Students take an active part in the lessons, thus developing their communication and presentation skills that employers highly value. Over 80 % of HELBUS instructors hold a doctorate and all have a wealth of teaching experience as well as are professionals in their own areas of expertise.
