About Nebrija

Officially accredited by the Spanish Ministry of Education and the Spanish Agency for Quality Assessment (ANECA).

Named after the 15th-Century humanist Antonio de Nebrija, who published the first Spanish grammar in 1492.

The Centro de Estudios Hispánicos is accredited by the Instituto Cervantes and the Madrid Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Nebrija collaborates with the Instituto Cervantes as an evaluation entity for the accreditation of centers and an examination center for the official DELE exams.

Why Nebrija?

The University offers a personalized, interactive, and innovative approach to education.

Nebrija's professors are highly qualified, with years of teaching experience and excellent interpersonal skills.

Students experience a dynamic, highly motivating, and international learning environment.

Nebrija has a student-faculty ratio of 10 to 1.

Why study in our Centro de Estudios Hispánicos?

Officially accredited by the Spanish Ministry of Education, our commitment to quality has made us one of the most prestigious Spanish language learning and E/LE teacher training centers in Spain and abroad. We have Semester, Summer Intensive and Customized Programs

This same commitment to quality has led Nebrija to establish collaborative agreements with highly prestigious private and public institutions at both national and international levels.

The Centro de Estudios Hispánicos is associated with CERCLES (European Confederation of Language Centres in Higher Education) and ACLES (Asociación de Centros de Lenguas en la Enseñanza Superior).

When the Centro de Estudios Hispánicos first opened 30 years ago, Spanish was primarily studied by specialists and enthusiasts of the language and Spanish culture. Today, Spanish is one of the world's most widely studied languages.

As a result, the current profile of our students is much more varied. In addition to students of language and the humanities, you can also find in our classrooms students from around the world who study business, journalism, political science, medicine and engineering.

Other services at Nebrija

Activities

Our courses and programs are complemented with a variety of cultural activities in Madrid as well as with excursions and trips outside the capital.

Cultural Activities

Each of our programs includes, with no additional cost, 6 activities such as walking tours in Madrid, visits to the Prado Museum, the Reina Sofía Museum, the Royal Palace, the Senate, the Parliament, lectures, etc.

Extralinguistic Activities

There are many other activities with an additional cost that are offered throughout the year: theaters, shows, dance classes, etc.

Excursions

Each program offers three guided one-day excursions. They are not included in the program fee. The places could be Toledo, Segovia, Salamanca, El Escorial and they take place on Saturdays. Round-trip bus fare, tour guide and sightseeing are included in the price.

Sports Club and International Club

The activities of these two clubs help international students to integrate themselves in the Spanish university environment.

Additional Services

Spanish Host Families

The Centro de Estudios Hispánicos offers its students housing with Spanish families. They can choose between half board and full board. Half board includes two meals: breakfast and either lunch or dinner. Full board includes three meals per day: breakfast, lunch and dinner. Spanish breakfast is very light and the most important meal is lunch. The university only guarantees accommodation during the dates of the program.

Other Accommodation Options

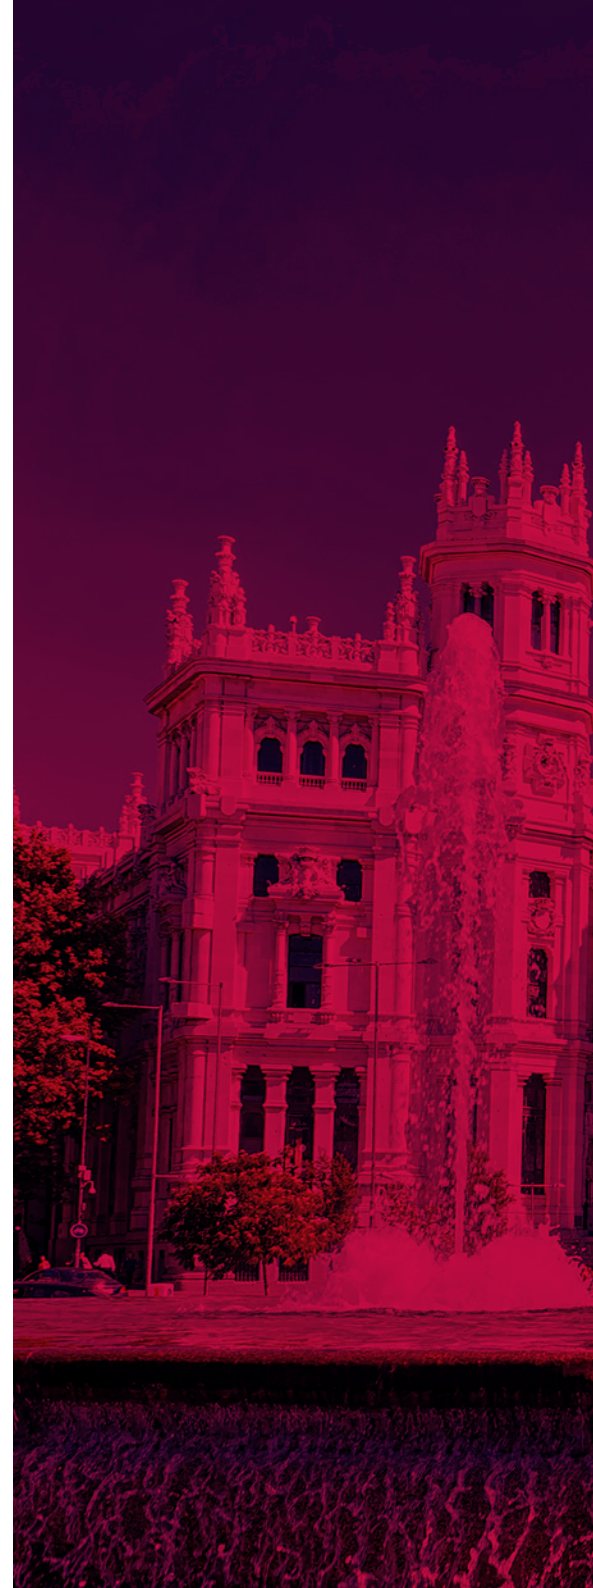

Students from the July Program can request accommodation in university residences. Availability will depend on the date of application. The Centro de Estudios Hispánicos does not arrange accommodation in hotels, hostels, or shared apartments.

To Apply for Accommodation

The first month must be paid in advance. Once received, the University will send the student the relevant details of the family or residence. Students who apply for accommodation must inform in writing at the moment they are applying if they have any diet or health restrictions, allergies, etc., which may affect their housing conditions.

Medical Insurance

It is mandatory for students to have full medical coverage insurance in Spain. Nebrija offers its international students the opportunity of purchasing medical insurance with a prestigious insurance company in Spain. Students from the E.U. need the European Health Insurance Card to receive public coverage in Spain.
