

DLR'S MUST VISIT EVENTS THIS WINTER ISSUE 2 – OCTOBER 2019.

Welcome to the latest instalment of the Dun Laoghaire-Rathdown Tourism Ezine, your one-stop-shop for everything going on across the county.

As we spring from Summer into Autumn, we have another busy few months as preparations gear up for Halloween and Christmas Markets across Dun Laoghaire-Rathdown. Make sure to have a look at our packed schedule of events and festivals which will excite and delight with an endless array of events and festivals this Winter. For the latest news and views across DLR, follow us on social media!

Dublin Animation Festival

18th - 19th October, Pavilion Theatre

Now in its 9th year, this festival will take place with screenings, workshops and lectures on 18th and 19th of October 2019!

Truly one of Ireland's most unique and brilliant festivals, every year members of the local community join organisers, animators, film fans, and sponsors to witness a very special weekend of celebration.

See the full line up of films here.

Samhain

---

27th October, Marlay Park

The annual spooktacular haunted forest walk is back in all its gory glory with the sounds, shadows and creatures of Marlay Park.

Dress your worst, in your most freakily frightening costume, and join us this for this unique fright in the forest.

Halloween Tours

28th - 31st October (excluding Tues. 29th),

Pick your steps around a haunted graveyard, discover the secrets of the Viking warrior who captures slaves and imprisons them on Dalkey Island, or stand in the Castle's murder room and learn of the haunting things that happen there.
