Copperstate Farms Appoints Brad Kotansky as Chief Financial Officer

PHOENIX, Sept. 29, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Copperstate Farms Management, LLC, a vertically integrated cannabis company based in Arizona, is announcing the appointment of Brad Kotansky as Chief Financial Officer.

He most recently served as Chief Financial Officer at 4Front Ventures, a publicly traded, multi-state cannabis operator. Prior to his transition into the cannabis space, Kotansky co-founded a leading software company and also had his own real estate development firm. He brings over fifteen years of executive level experience on Wall Street having worked as a hedge fund portfolio manager and investment banker.

“We are delighted to have Brad join our organization. He brings tremendous passion for the industry, keen financial acumen, and a love for building teams. Copperstate Farms is experiencing tremendous growth and we have a need to build out our bench as we scale,” stated CEO Pankaj Talwar.

“Throughout my career, my focus has always been to help organizations scale and build a sustainable business, while also implementing solutions to de-risk opportunities. I look forward to applying this methodology to my new role at Copperstate Farms,” said Kotansky.

Copperstate Farms is home to the largest indoor cannabis facility in the U.S. with 40 acres under glass. A licensed producer and distributor of medical cannabis in Arizona, Copperstate Farms is the parent company to multiple product suites and dispensary retail concept Sol Flower.
