Copperstate Farms Receives Honors at Arizona's First High Times Cannabis Cup

Good Things Coming French Chocolate Brownie Bites were awarded podium honors in the Best Non-Gummy Edible category.

PHOENIX, Aug. 31, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Copperstate Farms Management, LLC, a vertically integrated cannabis company based in Arizona, today announced its Good Things Coming French Chocolate Brownie Bites received recognition at Arizona's first High Times Cannabis Cup.

Awarded 2nd Place in the Best Non-Gummy Edible category, Good Things Coming Brownie Bites are made with premium French Valrhona chocolate and a touch of sea salt. Products are formulated for medical and adult-use with high and low-dose THC options.

This was the first People's Choice Edition of the High Times Cannabis Cup in Arizona where winners were chosen by the general public who purchased a judging kit. Over 1,400 consumers participated in the voting process, with 120 product entries across 45 brands.

Established in 2019, Good Things Coming is a chef-driven, precision-dosed cannabis brand founded by Aaron Chamberlin. Good Things Coming products also include Lavender Lemon Drops and flavored Fruit Jellies made with all-natural, gluten-free ingredients.

"To participate in the inaugural Arizona High Times Cannabis Cup and receive the approval and praise of local cannabis consumers is truly an honor," stated Chamberlin.

The High Times Cannabis Cup was founded in 1988 and has emerged as one of the world's top-tier cannabis competitions.
