

Role Title:

Programme Development Assistant: Social Protection and Public Policy

TYPE

INTERNSHIP

CAREER FIELD

Law & Public Policy

START DATE

FLEXIBLE

THE ORGANISATION

An NGO which focuses on independent research and development of policy for inclusive economic growth, and the protection and development of vulnerable communities.

ROLE & RESPONSIBILITIES

The intern will assist in various areas of operations in the NGO. Main areas of focus could be research around social protection policy, policy development and project initiation.

They will also have the opportunity to get involved with the design and implementation of training conferences around social protection, giving guidance and input around program development, networking with development partners.

SKILLS ACQUISITION

- Time management and organization
- Development of interpersonal skills
- Creative and flexible thinking
- Confidence and decision making
- Research and analysis
- Project management

PERSON REQUIREMENTS

- Ability to work both independently and within a team
- Excellent communication skills
- An interest and basic understanding of human rights within a South African context
- Currently studying or completed degree in law or public policy would be advantageous

BENEFITS TO THE INTERN

- Work towards making valuable impacts for vulnerable communities on a national scale

- Receive guidance from a highly experienced, dynamic and knowledgeable team
- Increased awareness of social and economic issues in a South African context
- Develop key skills for your career in law and public policy
- Demonstrate your resilience, dedication and adaptability

SCHEDULE & COMPENSATION

Full-time temporary role with expectation of 37.5 hours work per week.

Summer placement of 8-12 weeks with some flexibility and potential to extend

Internship completed on an unpaid basis.

Further Information

For more information on our Law & Public Policy internships, click here:

Law & Public Policy Internships

