To whom it may concern,

Jessica Stanley was employed at Humaan for 8 years, from 2015 – 2023 over which time she held various senior positions within the organisation. Throughout this time Jess has been instrumental in contributing to the management and success of the business through roles in Project Management and team leadership.

Jess is a talented, detail oriented and highly motivated person, who will go to great lengths to get the best outcome for her peers, clients and the overall business. She is an excellent communicator, a team player, and always strives for excellence.

Throughout her time at Humaan, Jess has steered many projects to success, seamlessly translating business requirements and navigating technical challenges across both clients and team, always ensuring the best possible outcome for all parties. Jess has helped launch numerous award-winning projects and directly contributed towards the brand, vision and structure of the company.

In departing the business, Jess leaves a legacy that will be fondly remembered and impossible to match. We wish her all the best with her future endeavours.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you need any further information.

Sincerely,
