

For Your Ears Only Autumn 2020

Welcome to the latest edition of For Your Ears Only, with plenty of titles to keep you entertained through the season. In this introduction we also have a favour to ask of you.

Please take part in our Members Survey to help us better understand and serve our members.

We would be very grateful if you could complete our members survey by the end of February. It's really important to us to hear your views on what matters to you and how we can improve. It's also important for us to measure how our membership is made up across criteria such as age bracket, ethnicity etc. to help us know which areas we need to focus on to make our service as inclusive as possible. Please complete the survey online if you can from our website calibreaudio.org.uk, but if you find this difficult please call 01296 432 339 and one of our team can take your answers over the phone. There are just thirty questions which should take less than five minutes to complete.

You may order any of the books in this FYEO by using or online postal order form. Alternatively, you can email us at membershipservices@calibre.org.uk or telephone Membership Services on 01296 432339. Please be aware that any books you ask for will be added on to the end of your request list, so if you have a long list it may be some time before you get them. If you would like to talk about your requests list, then please get in touch with Membership Services.

Happy reading from the Editorial Team

By Daniel Marston

Narrator Tim Redman

The closest thing to total war before World War One, the Seven Years' War was fought in North America, Europe, the Caribbean and India with major consequences for all parties involved. This fascinating book is the first to truly review the grand strategies of the combatants and examine the differing styles of warfare used in the many campaigns.

13816 THE BIG SHOW

By Pierre Clostermann

Narrator John Hobday

Pierre Clostermann was one of the outstanding Allied aces of the Second World War. A Frenchman who flew with the RAF, he survived over 420 operational sorties, shooting down scores of enemy aircraft while friends and comrades lost their lives in the deadly skies above Europe. This is his extraordinary account which has been described as the greatest pilot's memoir of WWII.

13897 THE CHILDREN'S WAR

By Juliet Gardiner

Narrator Grace Dives

A poignant account of how the Second World War impacted on the lives of children. It describes every aspect of life on the home front - through letters and diaries, plus numerous vivid first hand accounts. The result is a supremely nostalgic reminder of what the war meant for the innocent children caught up in it.

14086 BUGLES AND A TIGER: MY LIFE IN THE GURKHAS

By John Masters

Narrator Nigel Bonyng

John Masters was a soldier before he became a bestselling novelist. He joined a Gurhka regiment on receiving his commission, and his depiction of garrison life and campaigning on the North-West Frontier is a matchless evocation of the British Army in India on the eve of the Second World War. Still very much the army depicted by Kipling, it stands on the threshold of a war that will transform the world.
