

JEFFREY N. THOMAS “IN THE ARENA” SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

September 16, 2021

Dear Applicant:

Through the generosity of Landrum & Brown, the University of Cincinnati is proud to offer the Jeffrey N. Thomas “In the Arena” scholarship to a student who is a (former or future) participant in the UC Forward Live Well Collaborative and has an expressed interest in aviation. Enrollment in a past Boeing studio class or the upcoming Boeing 2022 spring semester studio class is required to be considered for this scholarship. This is a meritorious award with demonstrated financial need as a secondary criterion.

Jeffrey N. Thomas is a 1967 UC alumnus from the Carl H. Lindner College of Business. Upon graduation, he stepped into the aviation arena to begin his career as an airport planner with Landrum & Brown, striving to be true to his convictions and unafraid to propose creative and visionary concepts. Throughout his career, Mr. Thomas has been a pioneer in the global airport planning industry. He has provided counsel, insight and expertise on the layout and design of some of the world’s busiest and most successful international hub/gateway airports in the U.S., Asia and the Middle East. To commemorate his 45 plus years of service in the industry, Landrum & Brown established this scholarship in his honor.

This one-year, $2500 scholarship is available to an undergraduate or graduate student who is enrolled full-time in the College of Design, Architecture, Art and Planning (DAAP), the College of Engineering and Applied Science (CEAS), or the Carl H. Lindner College of Business (LCOB).

The confidential, three-part application must be completed by you along with a personal or professional reference. All three sections of the application must be submitted together by Monday, November 8th at 5pm to:
