

The Next Generation of Teaching Artists: Art as Activism - Activating Your Own Truth

ITAC THINK TANK: September 2019

Hosted by Clara Bloomfield and Edinburgh College BA Drama and Dance Students (Scotland, United Kingdom)

Collective-encounters.org.uk. 2014. PRESS & PUBLICATIONS. [online] Available at:
<<https://collective-encounters.org.uk/wp/wp-content/uploads/2014/02/What-is-Theatre-for-Social-Change.pdf>> [Accessed 28 August 2019].

Grammatas, T., n.d. The New Role Of The Teacher: The Educator Artist | Theodore Grammatas. [online] Theodore Grammatas. Available at:
<<https://theodoregrammatas.com/en/the-new-role-of-the-teacher-the-educator-artist/>> [Accessed 13 September 2019].

Haseman, B. and Winston, J., 2010. 'Why be interested?' Aesthetics, applied theatre and drama education. Research in Drama Education: The Journal of Applied Theatre and Performance, 15(4), pp.465-475.

Mammalian.ca. n.d. PRESS & PUBLICATIONS. [online] Available at:
<<https://mammalian.ca/wp-content/uploads/2019/09/Mammalian-Protocol-for-Collaborating-with-Children-2016.pdf>> [Accessed 10 October 2019].

Prior, R., 2010. Using forum theatre as university widening participation (WP) for social well-being agendas. Journal of Applied Arts & Health, 1(2), pp.179-191.

Stickley, T., 2011. A philosophy for community-based, participatory arts practice: A narrative inquiry. Journal of Applied Arts & Health, 2(1), pp.73-83.