

Commercial, Insolvency and Corporate – M&A Lawyer

Affluo is currently looking for a junior associate (1-3 years of experience) to join our Commercial, Insolvency and Corporate – M&A departments in the teams of David Anné, Dominique Bogman and Christophe Minnart.

Affluo is an all-round business law firm that consists of highly specialised lawyers with a passion for solving complex legal questions. Our main goal is to translate legal challenges into pragmatic and workable solutions for our clients.

As a junior associate joining our team, your focus will be on assisting both national and international clients with their commercial, insolvency, corporate and M&A challenges. After acquiring a solid basis in these related domains of law, you will have the opportunity to further specialize in one or more areas of expertise.

Litigation, drafting and negotiation as well as advice in the above-mentioned areas of law will be part of your day-to-day work.

Your Profile

- Experience as lawyer or in-house lawyer (1-3 years)
- A level of autonomy that is in line with your experience
- Strong legal skills
- Strong knowledge of contract law
- A keen interest in commercial, insolvency and corporate law as well as in M&A
- Dynamic, flexible, pragmatic and business minded
- Strong organizational and operational skills (including the ability to manage your workload, etc.)
- Strong reasoning and writing skills
- Excellent in Dutch and English. Good knowledge of the French language is a plus

Your role:

- Advising clients on commercial, corporate, contract and insolvency law in a business context
- Drafting and negotiating commercial and M&A contracts and corporate documentation
- Handling commercial and corporate dispute resolution and litigation

We offer

- A young, dynamic law firm
- A complete educational training
- A diversified scope of work
- A flexible environment and work-life balance
- The possibility to work from home, from the Brussels office and from the Antwerp office
- An interesting performance-based remuneration and career opportunities
