

BIOGRAPHY

Liat Har Lev started her Flamenco training locally with Al Mozaico Flamenco Dance Academy, Centro Flamenco, Karen Flamenco, Oscar Nieto as well as many international guest artists. She has also pursued her Flamenco studies in Spain and continuously goes back to explore for more.

Liat has performed in The International Vancouver Flamenco Festival in 2017 & 2018 as well as The victoria Flamenco festival in 2020. She performs regularly in various venues in Vancouver such as Kino Café, and East is East restaurant. She is also the founder of Flamenco For A Cause, which consists of Flamenco artists that share their love of Flamenco Music and Dance with the public for the purpose of raising money for charities such as The Greater Vancouver Food Bank.

The passionate, expressive, and challenging nature of Flamenco inspires Liat to research, create, and perform it. She continuously explores this art form kinesthetically, musically, and spiritually.
