

Quality Policy

M&S Centerless Grinding, Inc. (M&S) provides precision grinding solutions and services to its customer base. Top Management and the entirety of M&S commit first to understand our customer specification requirements and expectations and then to meet or exceed those expectations by;

- providing a framework for establishing, reviewing, understanding and communicating quality objectives for the company and for each customer's individual project.
- ensuring that we comply with all customer requirements, both internal and external, as well as all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.
- ensuring continuous improvement with the intent to improve processes and product while managing risk, opportunity, and our customer's total experience.
- maintaining the effectiveness of our Quality Management System.
