

A top-down view of a large, dark-colored platter filled with a variety of appetizers. The items include several slices of cured meats (prosciutto, salami, chorizo), different types of cheese (cheddar, brie, blue cheese), breads (ciabatta, polenta chips), and fresh vegetables (carrots, celery, green onions). There are also two small white bowls containing dips (hummus and a creamy sauce) and a small bowl of olives. The platter is set on a light-colored wooden surface.
