

SHPETIM UJKANI

Sr Product Designer

It brings me joy designing human-centered digital experiences that appeal to a broad audience—as a result, creating a bridge between people and technology.

My forte is crafting digital products while combining design skills (Interaction Design, Visual & UI Design etc) and my love for psychology, in order to meet business and user needs.

PROJECTS & EMPLOYMENT

SENIOR PRODUCT DESIGNER

GIVERY.CO.JP | 2020 - PRESENT

Responsible for user experience design of "track"—a learning and testing platform that supports the recruitment and development of engineers. My other responsibilities are leading the design at Givery and deliver outcomes of the highest grade for the eLearning industry.

DESIGN MENTOR

CAREERFOUNDRY.COM | 2019 - PRESENT

My role as a UI Design Mentor includes providing motivational feedback and advice to students both in writing and via video calls on creating an industry-ready portfolio of project work in line with current standards and best practices.

PRODUCT DESIGNER

EGODITOR.COM | 2017 - 2020

Working with a great team located on Germany as a remote designer. My job consists of wireframing, designing and prototyping different design solutions on daily basis.

USER EXPERIENCE DESIGNER

CIPHR.IO | 2016 - 2019

Working with a distributed team of engineers and designers around the world on a next level digital privacy platform for iOS, Android and Desktop.

PRODUCT DESIGNER

TEAMSID.COM | 2014 - 2017

My job as a Product Designer was to envision how people experience managing passwords in different platforms. I had to bring that vision to life in a way that feels secure and brings delight.

UX/UI DESIGNER

TELEGRAFI.COM | 2015 - 2017

Telegrafi.com is one of the biggest portals in Balkan, Europe. It has a couple of millions vists a month.

I was approached by the CEO to redesign their whole portal. In 2016 we launched the new refined design with modern UX for their readers.

WEB & GRAPHIC DESIGNER

MIK GROUP | 2012 - 2014

During my time as a Web/Graphic at MIK Group I was concentrated on creating compelling and unique experiences for Web & Apps across different platforms. Drive brand consistency and creative expression across the company. Also managed and mentored other designers there.
